A NEW SCHOOL . .

Students took a much appreciated break from class to watch the Good Year blimp glide over the school.

Practice makes perfect! Stage band members David Carter, Robbie Brandon, Dwayne Seay, Charles Wajciechowski, Ann Wilson, Joy Conway, and Dawn Westbrook wish there were an easier way.

Artistic ability! Anthony Chappelle and Karen Trimmer show theirs by quickly painting flats.

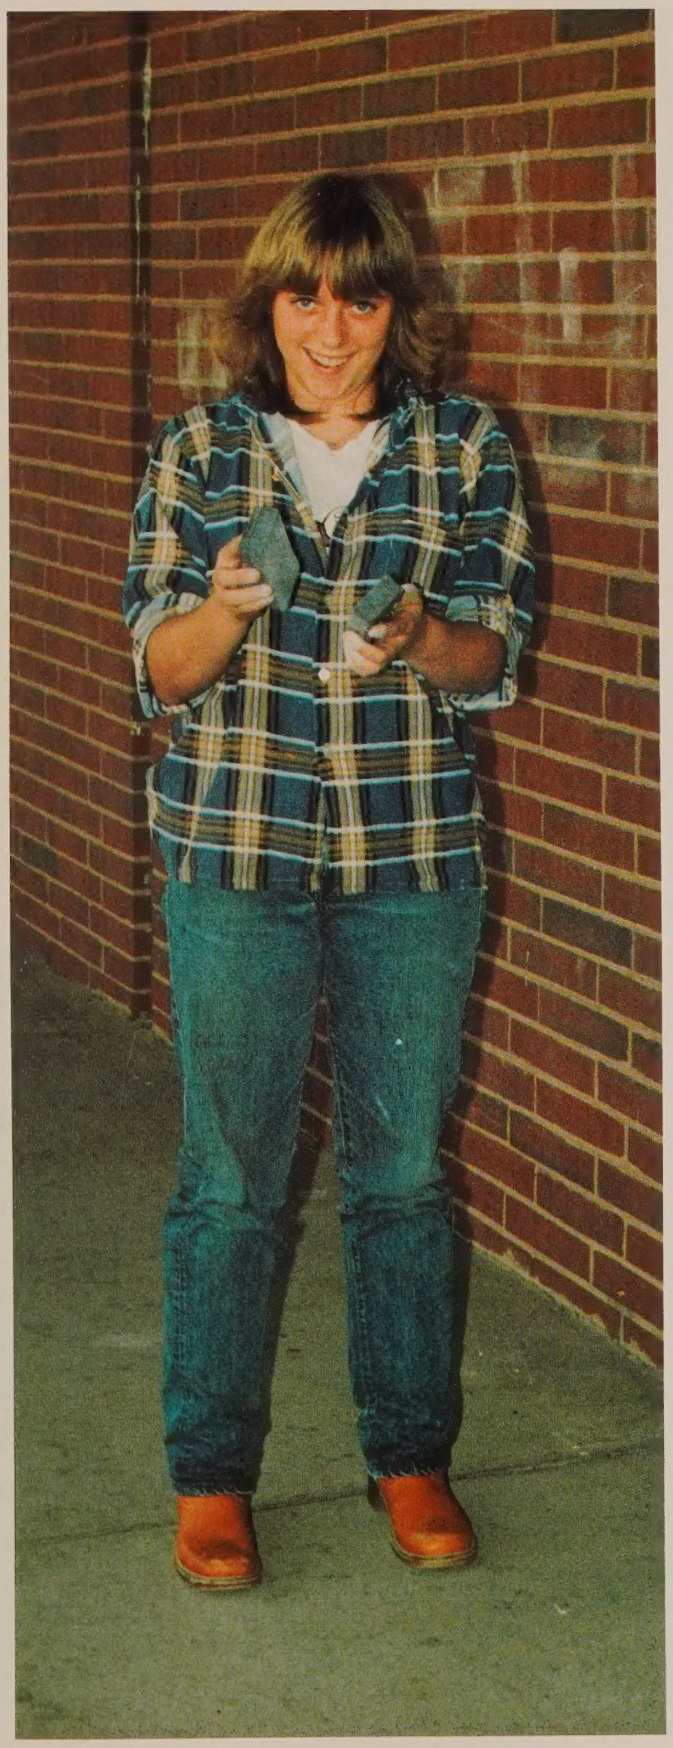
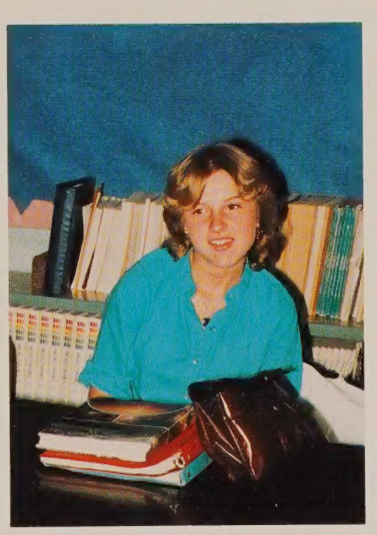
. . . A NEW ATTITUDE





With the start of a new school year, Varina emerged as a new school. The loss of the middle school provided the incentive needed to unify the high school and from the outset, a new spirit prevailed. Beginning the year with such a positive attitude resulted in renewed interest in clubs, sports, and activities. The Greek groups also carried over from last year, with members and sponsors the same. A student leader was chosen to direct the meetings, which were held every other Wednesday.

The groups had a slow start, but as the year progressed, participation looked up. Activities designed to promote spirit and interest included arm-wrestling and Saturday morning basketball.

EXPANDED FUNDS & SPACE

The first pep rally was evidence of our enthusiastic spirit, and afterwards Mr. Fox proudly boasted that it was the "Best ever!"

Added classroom space at the bottom of the hill necessitated moving the English and foreign language departments into the vacancies. Mr. Fox occupied a larger office, and teachers moved into a new lounge in which they could relax. The S.C.A. held a magazine sale, and the profits helped pay for the Xerox machine. Farewell, purple tests!

ACCEPTING RESPONSIBILITY

Varina, its campus a verdant glory, awaits the arrival of students.

Awaiting their new government assignment are Paula Nuckols, Tim Pickney, Mark Hudson, and Debbie Eccleston.

IN SCHOOL & COMMUNITY

The cafeteria offered a variety of foods, including a well-stocked salad bar, milkshakes, ice cream sandwiches, and nutty buddies. The quick line was offered again, in addition to the plate lunch.

County elections were held in the fall and Varina actively participated. The gym was set up as a polling place, and students rejoiced at the day off. Many of the eligible seniors came to vote and helped elect Tony Mehford for District Supervisor. Jim Turner was chosen as the new sheriff, and Bert Nance, the Commonwealth's Attorney.

With each student fulfulling his role in campus life, the year progressed smoothly. The continued march of time took its toll on everyone, and as deadlines and due-dates drew closer, bedlum prevailed. All requirments were met however, and life on campus never stopped.

Act 2, Scene 1-

The Drama Department, under the experienced guidance of Mrs. Belinda Mercer, began the year in a most productive manner. After considering dozens of plays, they chose "Up the Down Staircase" as the fall production, and work started immediately.

Tryouts were as hectic as ever, and after three days of nail biting and nerve-jumping, the performers found their names posted. Craig Mike designed the stage set, and all drama classes began painting. When they finally finished all that, rehearsals continued in earnest. After weeks of headaches and hard work, opening night came and with it success. Andy Allanson portrayed Joe Ferrone, a rebbellious student who refused to learn. Miss Barnett, playec by Dawn Westbrook, was the young teacher who tried to reach into Joe's life and share the gift of knowledge with him. Supported by Craig Mize as Mr. Barringer, Leonard Wingfield as Mr. McCabe, Tracey Rasnic as Ellen, and Tammy Williams as Bea, the play was a great success and even showed a small profit.

Enthusiasm Evident

The week before Homecoming provided an opportunity for the entire student body to become involved in the activities. The S.C.A. and Cheerleaders determined a format for the week's events.

All were given the chance to dress in styles from the 50's, wear unusual hats, appear in sweat shirts, jeans and tennis shoes, don their best clothes, and sport the blue and gold of Devil Country.

All of these activities were only a preview to the spirit of Homecoming Day. Friday finally arrived, and at the pep rally, all thirteen princesses were presented. The student body agreed with the Senior class on their representation, and afterwards all eagerly awaited the start of the night's festivities.

Warm Hearts

Homecoming night was the culmination of weeks of careful planning. These efforts assured that the night would be a success.

The Varsity football team confronted Tabb after the parade of floats and princesses. Varina quickly took control of the game, and by half time the score was 14-0.

The princesses and their escorts were announced and took the field during the half time activities. Princess Kim Ransom was chosen second-runner up, and Princess Renee Breaux was chosen first runner up. They were led to their coronation by co-captains Ray Hooper and Leonard Wingfield. With tears in her eyes, Princess Todd Buheller was then led to her waiting reception by team captain Andy Allanson. Janet Major, Homecoming Queen for 1978-79, proudly placed the crown on the new queen.

The teams returned to the field, and Varina continued their command over Tabb. When the final whistle blew, Varina had solidly beaten Tabb 38-0. This victory, with the absence of rain and all the other traditional activities helped make Homecoming night one of the highlights of the year.

As Polly Guard shoots for two, Rita Stewart and Melissa stand ready in case of a rebound.

Providing a block, Robert Bartlett opens a hole for Peanut Wright to make a first down.

Aspiring Athletes

Receiving their football certificates at the winter awards banquet are Jerry Hooper, Dave Crosby, Rusty Hobson, and Rodney Clay.

With perfect balance, Cindy Blair poses on the balance beam.

Dribbling down the court for a layup is Andy Allanson.

Preparing for the attack is John Brockwell.

With the large number of athletes at Varina, everyone could find at least one are area to participate in. Most athletes became involved in more than one sport, and many achieved recognition in each. Football, baseball, gymnastics, track, and basketball each had their moment in the spotlight. Although not all teams made it to districts or regionals, each gained experience which can be used to improve next year's records.

Several outstanding senior athletes, including Leonard Wingfield, Andy Allanson, Rick Reynolds, Rick Alexander, Ray Hooper, Chippy Garland, and Jeff Helmick were carefully scouted in their respective sports, assuring that Varina will be well represented in colleges across the state next year.

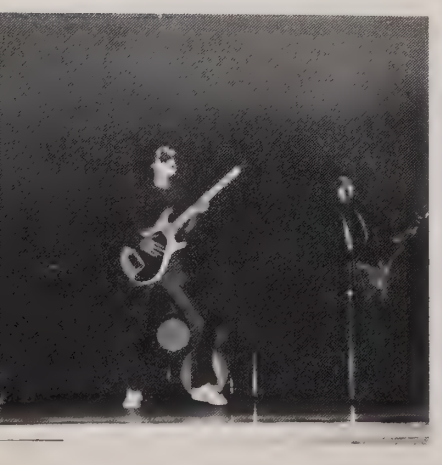
A Night On

Three tuneful tooters! Mary Long, Sonya Harris, and Joyce Brandon, successfully complete their song.

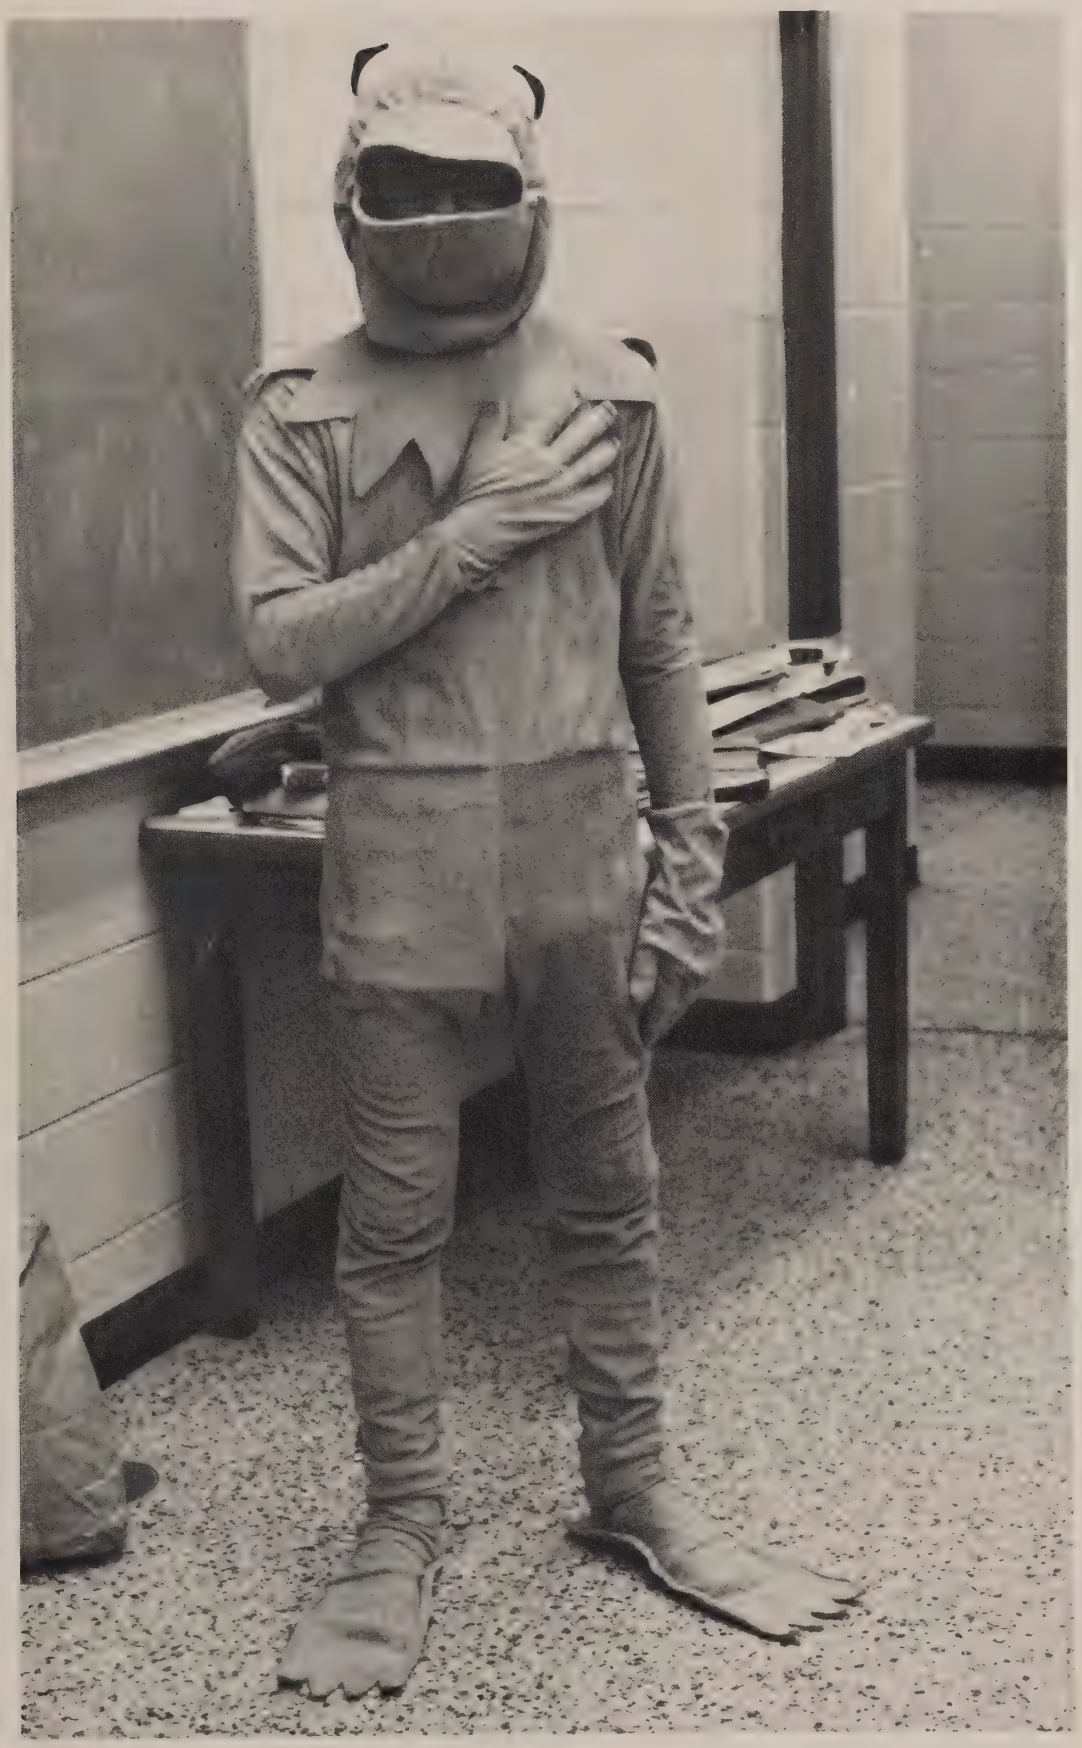
Always a favorite with the audience, Dawn Westbrook once again keeps her fans spellbound by her style and finesse.

Brandishing electric guitars and white disguises, Joey Brown, Roger Owen, and LaDonna Owen create their homemade version of KISS!

Take That! "Klondike" Eric Sorenson delivers a direct blow to "Wildman" Mike Perry as referee Craig Schettino attempts to keep it a clean match.



The Town



Although a freak snow blizzard cancelled many practices, tried every performer's nerves, and beckoned many to the slopes, Talent Of Our Times, sponsored by the VHS Band, was again an entertaining delight to the audience. This year's theme, "A Night On The Town," left the stage floor subject to any and every kind of act imaginable. With the help of co-directors Erin Park and Ann Wilson, all available band members became involved. The Master of Ceremonies was senior Mike Perry, who displayed his versatility by performing a unique banjo jamboree and also competing in the mid-Varina wrestling match. Other acts included Dawn Westbrook dancing "The Tornado Ballet" from the hit musical THE WIZ and Robie "Kermit" Brandon singing "The Rainbow Connection" from The Muppet Movie. The show was brought to a joyful yet sad end by the combined voices of the entire cast singing Hee-Haw's closing theme!

Being the patriotic frog that he is, Kermit (alias Robbie Brandon) attempts to keep his composure before his big debut.

It is Friday Night Live, with our weekend commentators, Gene Fitz and Joel Schmick, broadcasting current events as they see them . . . Which is not neccessarily what really happened.

Bar Adds Life

What can a person say about cafeteria food? Well, there were plenty of comments from the usual crowd of students and teachers who daily feasted on the "tender vittles." Instead of the same menu day in and day out, this year the customers were given a choice of their meals. Instead of merely filling their stomachs, students were enjoying the decision between the salad bar, the quick line, or the plate lunch. The quick line, characterized by its slowness, kept hot sandwiches and french fries, the salsd bar featured crisp lettuce and tomatoes; the plate lunch served everything from spaghetti to tacos.

Definitely disturbed is Jerry Hooper, David Taylor, Bubba Harlow, Mike Lamphire.

Conversation still goes on while Janet Bowers, Margaret Baget, Angie Edwards, and Everette Mason find little time to eat.

His attention caught elsewhere, Emmet Allen's lunch is disturbed, while Steve Dunaway continues to study his food.

Lunch is a time to unwind, Andrew Bagby, Darryl Goode, Andrew Tyler, Cookie Bagby, Horace Flemming, Tim Gray, Archie Bagby, and Michael Christian.

Although not much room is left for lunch, Christine Eberhard, Robin Anderson, and Zina Warrener don't seem to have any problems. Enjoying their lunches are Jane Jordan, Janice Boothe, Mary Long, and Mary Cheek.

"South Pacific," merely an idea in the unquenchable mind of Mrs. Mercer in December, had by January begun to assume the characteristics of reality. Decided upon by drama classes, "South Dakota," "South Atlantic," or "North Pacific" as it was dubbed by those associated with it, called for a large, talented cast. Auditions led to the discovery of much hidden talent in the rank and file of boy's and girl's choruses, and provided singers for the parts. A cockeyed-optimist at heart, Dawn Westbrook portrayed Nellie Forbush, Bryan Wade assumed the rank of dashing Lieutenant Cable, a sharp contrast to the enterprising Luther Billis, played by Craig Mize. Regina Young filled the role of quick-talking, fast-dealing Bloody Mary. Captain Brackett, portrayed by Craig Schettino, and his right hand man Commander Harbison, played by Karl Wolpert, ran this military island.

The beat of the music does strange things to Bullis, (Craig Mize) while Tammy Williams and Janice Mills salute the cause.

Each year many thespians and other interested students anxiously await the musical. The play "South Pacific" by Rogers and Hammerstein was the choice. In early January, many excited actors and actresses practiced songs for their auditions. After much thought, Mrs. Belinda Mercer cast the roles: David Brandon as Pte. Sven Larson, Robbie Brandon as Seaman Tom O'Brien, Dave Crosby as Abner, Larry Davis as Seabee Richard West, Anthony French as Lt. Buzz Adams, Randy Hall as the Professor, Janet Hillard as Lt. Genevieve Marshall, Mike Klee as Seabee Morton Wise, Tammy Layne as Liat, Rhonda Marshall as Ensign B. Noonon, Rehearsals were slightly delayed because of unusual snow storms. In February, the play was going full blast. The sets were under construction while Brad Boynton helped immensely by suggesting creative ways to lower costs while retaining quality.

Over 1500 hours were spent to weave paper bags. Many concentrated on building a workable shower, a collapsible hut, and a usable walkway.

From the smallest job to the largest role, all were needed to open the show for the audience. "Red Roses" to all who gave countless hours and especially to the lady who made dreams come true - Mrs. Mercer.

Variety Adds Life

Athletic teams held their annual banquets in the usual manner. Fall, Winter, and Spring award banquets were attended by football players, track team members, and gymnasts, who came to receive their recognition.

Varinians also took many field trips. The Senior class made their traditional trips to the General Assembly and the State Penitentary. Death classes visited the funeral home and a crematorium. The English and Drama classes attended "As you Like It" at the Virginia Muesuem Theater. The Drama students' annual trip to New York took place over Easter vacation. The theater crowd was joined by Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Fox.

Receiving their awards are basketball stars Rodney Clay, Bubba Harlow, and Mike Wilson, while Mr. and Mrs. Doub applaud their efforts.

Basking in the glory of the moment is Barry Gorman and Theron Richards.

Outstanding athletes, the indoor track team receives recognition: Donald Groez, Bill Jenkins, Paul Mullins, Coach Eberly, Leonard Wingfield, Arnold Roots, David Taylor, and Lloyd West.

Conducting an interview with the actors of the Virginia Muesuem Theatre's production of "Mother Courage" is Craig Mize.

Along with Mrs. Lynda Robb, Rita Stewart, John Rutledge, and Joe Brinkley attend the General Assembly.

Listening intently to the General Assembly guide is Steve Martin, Joe Brinkly, Renee Hall, Kay Tolley, Leslie Winstead, and Larry Davis.

Juniors Prepare

With the prom just around the corner, the Juniors finally began raising money by selling jewelry, class T-shirts, and tickets to the Junior-Faculty Basketball game, and collecting aluminum cans. The traditional money-raiser, "Spotlight", was cancelled because of lack of student interest among all the classes. A few loyal, hardworking juniors accepted the heavy responsibility of the prom and its many problems. It definitely had more than its share of those. The total lack of motivation and communication in the Junior Class was the biggest problem. The students' priorities were spread among sports, drama, music and other various clubs. Time was getting short and still crucial items were not yet attended. By May many Juniors were involved praying for more time and energy.

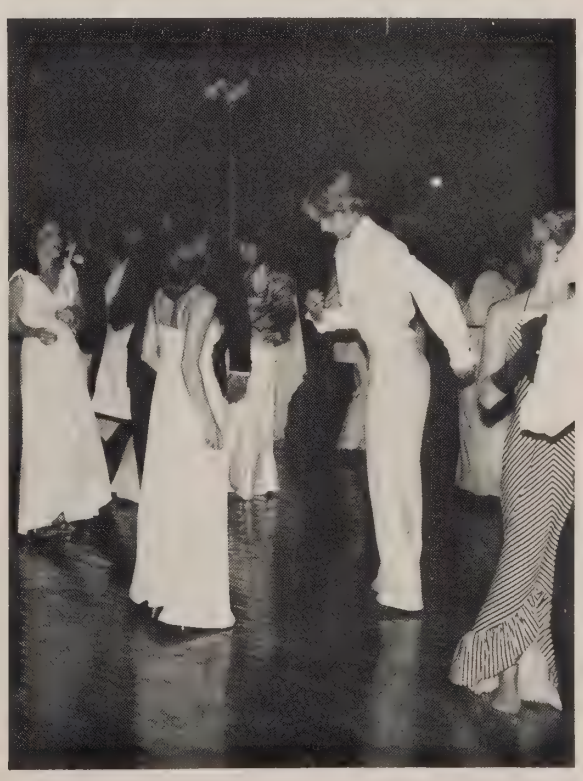
The lobby is the first thing that eager prom-goers see; thus, Lisa Lang, Tammy Williams, and Janet Hillard strive to perfect its beauty. (Opposite)

A special dance is enjoyed by Buddy Bell, Theresa Hall, Barry Gorman, and his date.

Taking a rest form the busy dance floor are Dawn Westbrook and Bobby Sandford.

Dancing the night away is Denise Boone, Barbara Chenault, Roger Duckworth, and Lisa Lang.

Waiting to have the all important prom pictures taken are Anita Cain, Debbie Hite, Mike Wilson, and Derek Thorpe.



An unexpected problem happened: the band "Paradise" cancelled. The search for another band procured "Frenn". Lobby decoration and a portrait background depicted a Cinderella palace adorned with millions of stars crepe paper streamers.

Couples began arriving at eight and were served by sophomore attendants. They were welcomed by junior class president, Janis Washington. The Juniors were then thanked for their hard work by senior class president Carl Ellis.

Taking their place in the Senior Figure, a crescent moon, and then into the "Eighty," seniors became fully aware that this was their last formal dance at Varina, not only brought to mind their previous happy occasions, but marked their rapid progression to the end of their high school lofe.

It looks as though Terry Redford and Jon Hall are enjoying themselves at the the Junior-Senior prom.

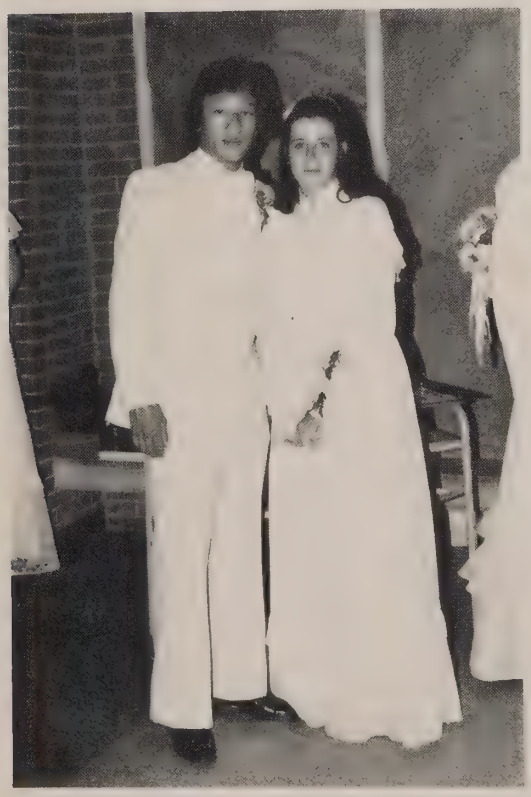
A Midnight Fantasy is shared by Diane Marshall, Russell Cannon, and Diane Smith.



Seniors Honored

Dignified and serious, Mike Wolpert awaits the traditional Class Day activities.

The arrival of the underclassmen and teachers is awaited by Larry Davis, Leonard Wingfield, Charles Wajciechowski, and John Rutledge.

As in years past, the class of 80 marched into the auditorium May 29, to be honored for the last time by the student body.

The S.C.A. started the ceremonies with President Kim Baxter leading the school in the pledge of Allegiance. The new S.C.A. officers were installed, and Jon Hall presided ove over the remainder of the activities.

Deserving students were honored for their achievements, with Joy Conway and David Taylor being named outstanding athletes. The top ten seniors were announced and citizenships, drama, and highest grade average awards were given.

The seniors marched out, and the Juniors followed the Class of 1981.

Bye - Bye

The stadium quickly filled with parents and friends. The seniors were awaiting the cue to march onto the football field. The audience was stirred to tears, laughter, and occasional reverence. Scholarships were awarded to deserving seniors to help them with their college education. Diplomas and mortar boards almost touched the cloudless sky as the class of 1980 were pronounced alumni. Tears streaked young cheeks as friends embraced. The past twelve years of sweating over homework and term papers culminated into a two hour ceremony — much too short for the hard work.

The Girl's Varsity Basketball team had a rewarding season. Coach Hunt and a strong nucleus of starters -Dianne Marshall, T. J. Sommerville, Rita Stewart, and Polly Guardled the team to many victories. Sophomore Melissa Miller completed the starting five and played very well. Possessing great composure on the floor, Stewart and Sommerville led the team in scoring. Miller and Stewart did the same in rebounds. Finishing the year with an 8-2 district, 13-4 overall record, they placed second on regular season district play. The team then went on to place second in the district tournament, but lost to Turner-Ashby in the first round of Regional Play-Offs.

At the post-season awards banquet, T.J. Sommerville was chosen most valuable player.

NEW LINE UP

Varsity Football, under the direction of Coach Richards, began the 1979-80 season with only 4 of 22 positions returning. The coaching staff felt that "our young players would have to perform extremely well before the team would achieve any success." The team won when the young players played to their full potential. Unfortunately, they were not able to develop any form of consistency and finished the season 4-6.

Highlights of the season included the 34-0 Homecoming Victory over Tabb and handing New Kent their only defeat of the season, 12-0.

Numerous players received individual awards, with Ray Hooper leading the way by being named First team All-Metro as well as First team All-District. David Taylor was voted MVP by his teammates.

With 48 out of 56 players returning, the coaches are looking forward to next year with a great deal of optimism.

THROUH THE WOODS

The Indoor Track Team, supervised by Coach Warner Eberly, had a very successful 79-80 season. The highlight of the year was the team's advancement to the Regional competition held in Lexington, Viriginia. They were led by Leonard Wingfield, who landed first place with his 6'-5" high jump. Regional places were also won by David Taylor in the shot put and Arnold Roots in the Long jump and triple jump. The Regional meet was concluded with Varina scoring a total of 20 points.

Pacing himself to keep his energy and his lead, Billy Jenkins is going for the gold.

Straining every muscle he possesses, Kenny Craft will obviously be relieved when he finally breaks the tape.

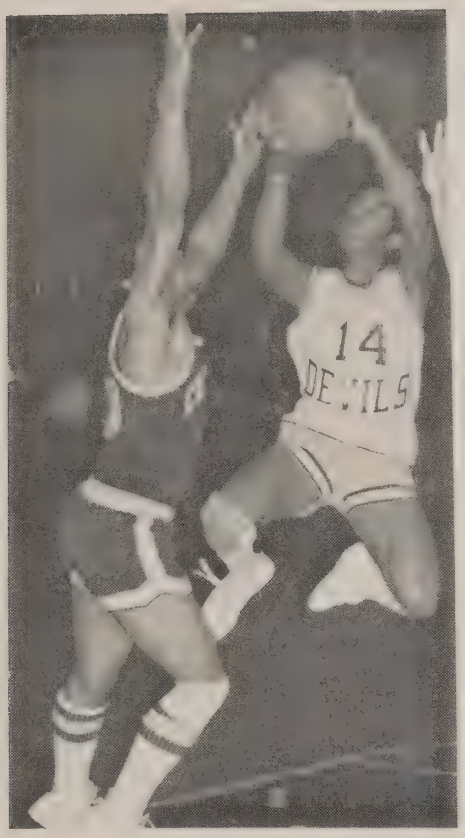
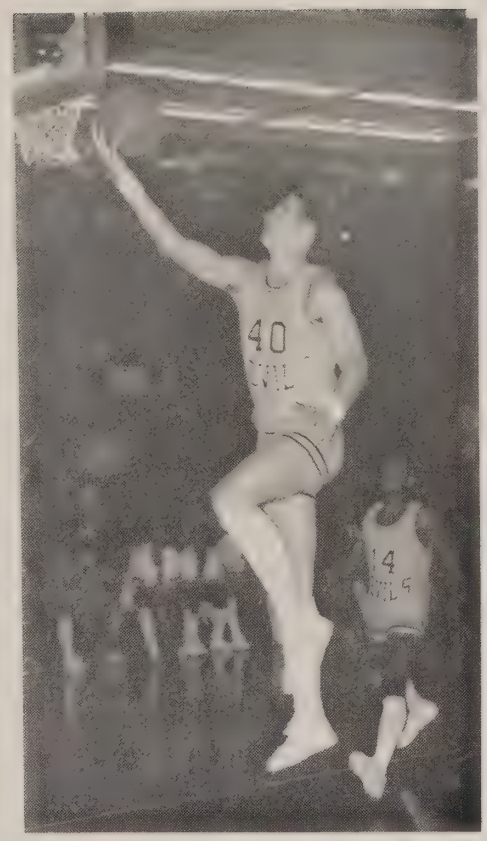
A shot for two more points is attempted by Jerry Hooper, while Andy Allanson and Ricky ALexander try to block.

The Varsity Basketball team; Mike Wright, William Paige, Rodney Clay, Bubba Harlow, Dennis Hancock, Jerry Hooper, Andy Allanson, Melvin Roane, Ricky Alexander, and Mike WIlson.

In conference, Coach Rudacille, goes over strategy with Andy Allanson, Bubba Harlow, Melvin Roane, and Rodney Clay.

ABOVE AVERAGE





An outstanding team played an above average season; what else can be said? The team, consisting of one sophomore, five juniors and four seniors, started with a winning streak. The home court advantage paid off as we won nearly every home game. The fans showed up in droves to support their team. When the team had themselves together, they really exploded into excellence. With many outstanding highlights, Varina came in Second in the Battlefield district. With the conclusion of the season Andy ALlanson received Most Valuable Player for his outstanding achievement on the court.

A style all his own, Mike "Peanut" Wright strives for 2.

It looks easy when Andy Allanson goes for a basket as Mike Wright watches.

Into the picture jumps Rodney Clay after making a basket. Jerry Hooper keeps Culpepper out of the way.

VYING FOR THE TOP

The Varsity Gymnastics team worked extraordinarily hard this year. Daily practices were approximately three hours long. The seven team members started the year with a new coach, Mrs. Bonnie Bridgewater, who was a former VHS gymnast, and an assistant coach, Mrs. Linda Holloway. Throughout the season, various team members suffered injuries which dampened their hopes of winning the State Championship. Unfortunately, James Monroe defeated VHS in the district by a narrow margin. All team members advanced to the regional competition. Suzanne Bottoms was selected to participate in the State meet where she ranked fifth on the beam. At the sports award banquet, Suzanne Bottoms received the Most Valuable Gymnast, Cindy Blair won the Best Attitude Award, and Genelle Snodgrass captured the Most Improved Award. The gymnasts hope to have an easier season next year because of the change to the new district. The graduating seniors, Suzanne Bottoms and Cindy Blair, will be missed by the other team members.

Flying through the air with the greatest of ease is Genelle Snodgrass.

Contemplating the next routine is Cindy Blair.

Adjusting the bars to the correct height is Suzanne Bottoms. Cindy Blair ponders this activity while Sam Rapp inspects Suzanne's work.

Showing her skill on the beam is Candace Walton.

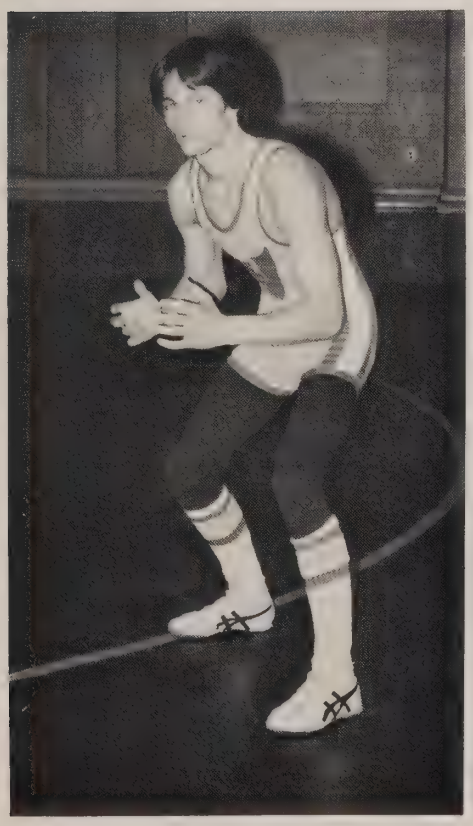
Finally pinning his opponent is Enyl Hensley, with Coach Eberly and Cathy Beazley looking on.

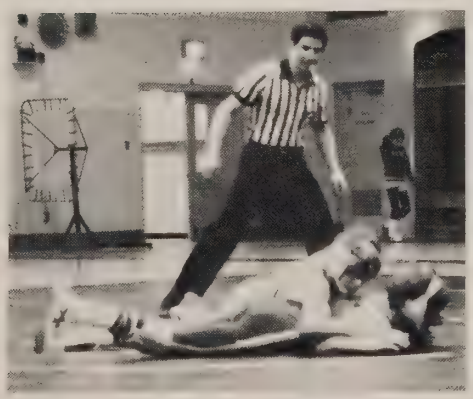
CHAMPS

The Varsity Wrestling team posted a very successful 8-5 season record.

Russell Cannon and Curtis Dejong were the captains. Nine wrestlers went to regional competition and three of the nine, Cannon, Dejong, and Parten, went to State competition.

Nine of the twelve Varsity wrestlers will be returning next year. "I expect," coach Chamberlain said, "to have a very good season on the strength of those returning and on those up coming J.V. and Middle school wrestlers. Next year should also be exciting with Varina in the new Dominion District in which I expect us to be one of the strongest teams."





Bearing down on his opponent, Bucky Klee strives to get back points.

Ready to attack the world is Senior Russell Cannon.

"I gotcha!" Junie Gillen cries to his opponent.

Holding his opponent in an all-important pin, Mark Weaver waits for the whistle.

EXPERIENCE GAINED

The loss of several players caused the Varsity Soccer Team to begin their season with a severe handicap. But a new coach and several new players, combined with many returning team members, helped create a solid team.

Coach Stuckwisch, beginning his first year as soccer coach at Varina, led his team to a successful, if sometimes frustrating season, ending with a 4-4-3 record. Records can be deceiving, however, as many games which Varina expected to win were rained out. Highlights of the season included two shut-out games with Marshall-Walker and a tie with undeafeated Fork Union Military Academy.

The team's achievements gained them a tournament place in the Virginia Soccer League. Although the team lost the first round, it went on to defeat Powhatan in the consolation game and place third in the league.

Post-Season honors included the selection of Charles Wajciechowski, and Gilbert Escobar to the first all-star team, and Karl Wolpert to the second alll-star team. Teammates also voted Charles Wajciehowski as most valuable player.

Although many seniors will be leaving, the experiance gained by underclassmen and Coach Stuckwisch will be a great asset to next year's team.

His legs become his tools toward victory for Robbie Brandon.

Slowly kicking the ball down the field is Kim Kon Dok.

Outstanding seniors of the team included: 1st row, Dennis Knific, Jeff Helmick, Anthony French; 2nd row: Bill Nelson, Mgr. Kim Hitchcock, Robbie Brandon, Charles Wajciechowski, Karl Wolpert, and Gilbert Escobar.

The soccer field is a second home for Karl Wolpert.

SECOND IN STATE

A conglomeration of excellent soft ball players was gathered together from around the Varina campus to play in the spring.

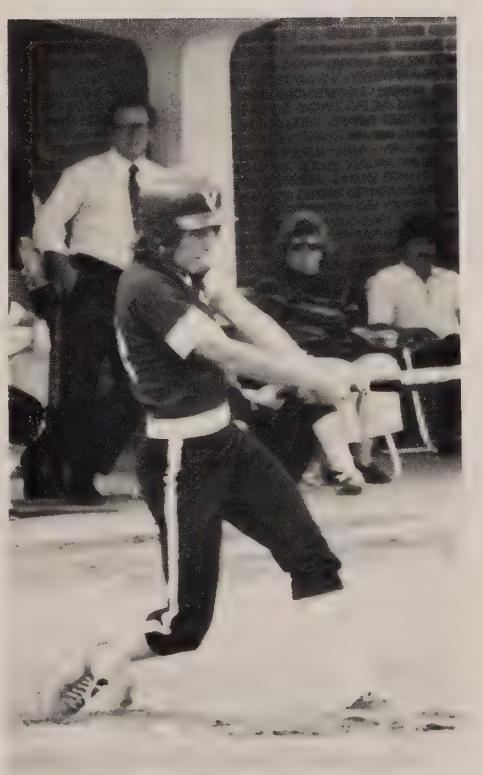
With many returning from last year, dreams of another state title this year ran through their heads.

WE had an outstanding season, losing only one game. The dream seemed to be coming true as we won the Battlefield District, then the regional and went on to Sussex for State.

The game was cancelled because of rain, and we had to wait another day. When we finally did get to face our opponents, we were prepared to fight. The competition was stiff as Sussex had not lost a game yet -

We took our defeat like sportsmen - but next year we'll get them!

Bat met ball and sent it flying. Diane Marshall follows through.



Hope written on her face, Diane Smith pitches another strike.

The coach at third is none other than Hunt.

Confident of her stance, Joy Conway is ready for the ball.

Determination to win is evident as Rita Stewert hits the ball. Mr. Fox and Mrs. Flippo look on.

Continuous practice will bring perfection. David Taylor strives for perfection.

WARM UPS

The aim is to glide over the bar - will Leonard Wingfield make it?

His pace is set, Billy Jenkins will hasten to finish.

The take off is high - Terence Hicks jump will be long.

Look at Robbie Petres sail over the hurdles and this is just practice.

Victory

Varsity Girls' Track: 1st row: Tracy Fussell; 2nd row: Genelle Snodgrass, Frances Petres; 3rd row: Debbie Hite, Robin Christmas, Valerie Brown; 4th row: Tracie Robinson, Tracy Fields, Margaret Epps, Janis Washington; 5th row: Chris Wilson, Anita Wajciechowski, Tawana Demery, Melissa Miller, Robin Turner; 6th row: Mrs. Palmore Dyer, Frances Brown, Mrs. Fern Thompson.

Hoping to pass over the bar is Janis Washington as Mrs. Dyer watches for accuracy.

Trying to win the two-mile run is Anita Wajciechowski.

Keeping her feet up high in hopes of winning a long jump is Debbie Hite.

The long jump is made easy by Frances Brown.

The shot seems like a paper ball when Tawana Demery hurls it through the sky.

Backhands are not easy; just ask Rusty Hobson.

Hopefully Chris McKinney will hit that ball before it bounces.

2nd in DISTRICT

The Varsity Boys' Tennis Team had a good season, finishing with a 4-2 record and second place in the district after losing the first two matches. Coach Rudacille stressed consistency and conditioning, which paid off for Varina in two very close matches. Mrs. Dearth helped with drills and strategy in her role as advisor. Mike Wood (MVP) had a particularly good year with a 10-2 record. The team is looking forward to a good season next year in the new district.

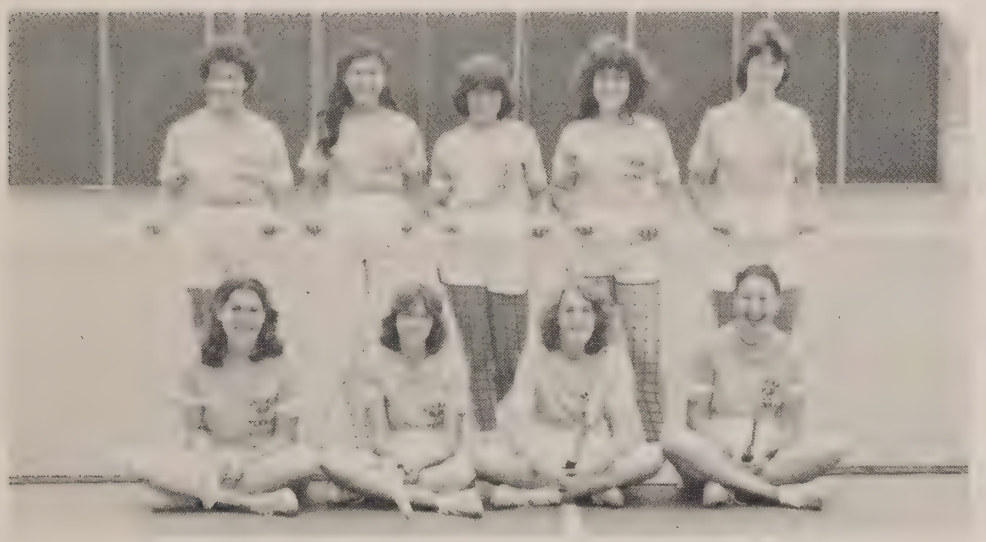
The ball is watched closely by Jon Hall.

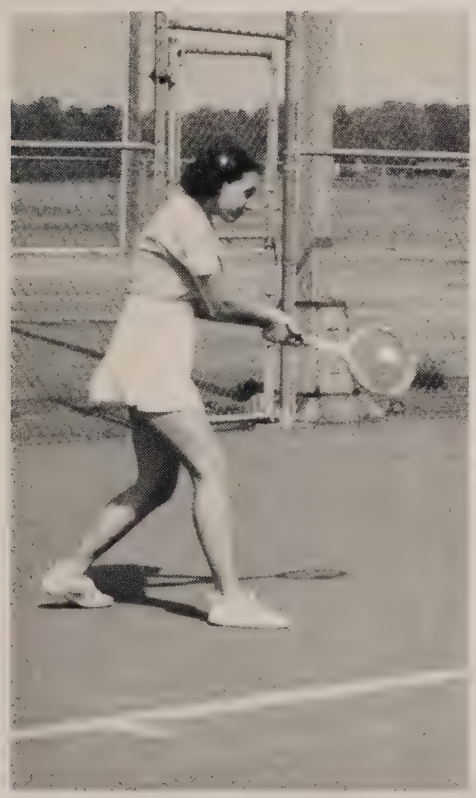
Ready to return the ball is Stacey Smith.

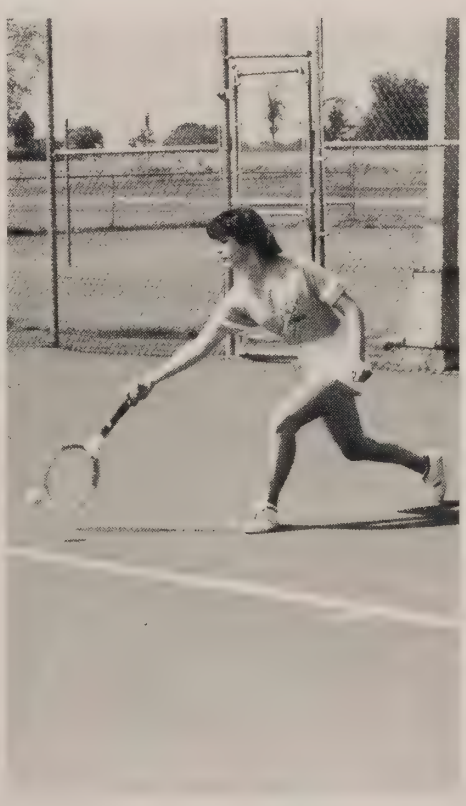
Completion of a forehand is mastered by Mike Wood.

Teamwork!

A tennis racket becomes the weapon for victory for Angela Mitchell.







In playing doubles, Jennifer Hughes and Cathy McLaughlin learn team work.

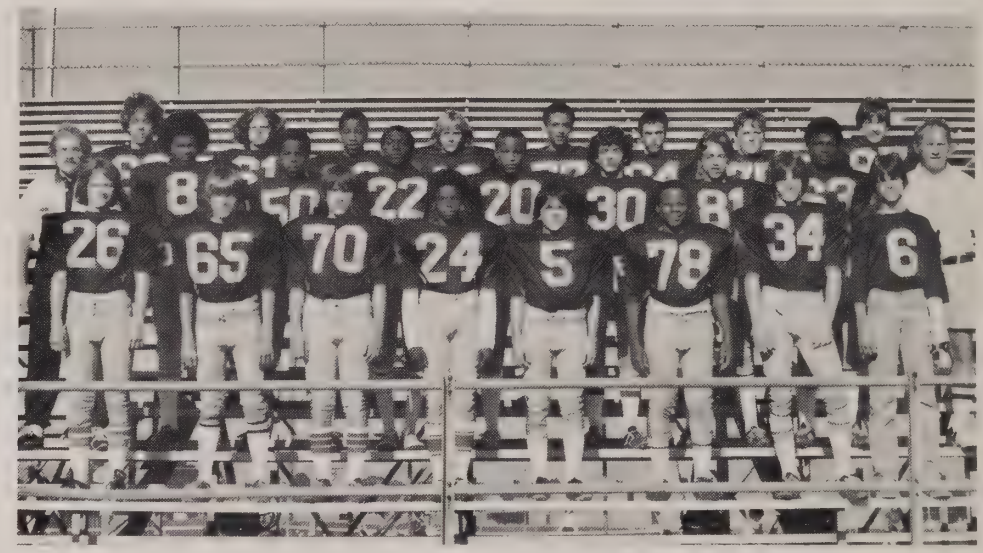
An extra little hop helps Renee Wade to return the ball back to her opponent.

Sometimes using two hands for support aids Terri Justice to victory.

Concentration makes Lori Walker instinctively move to hit the ball.

PUNT AND SHOOT



The Junior-Varsity football team supervised by Coach Rudacille and Coach Stuckwisch, had more of an educational season than a victorious one. Yet finishing with an 0-5 record did not put a damper on the other characteristics the team possessed; a good attitude and fighting spirit. One of the determining factors in the outcome of the season was the unusual smallness of the squad. Because of their size each player was given the extra attention a large squad lacks. By developing their potential to the fullest, these J.V. players may become a more alert and experienced varsity team. For the second year in a row Keith Carter recieved the Mark Stephenson Memorial award in memory of the young athlete. Co-Captain Keith Carter was also voted the most valuable player.

Leading Don Seelman down the field are Troy Wyche, Steve Reid, and Keith Carter.

The Junior-Varsity Football Team: front row - Jesse Deerwester, Mike Johnson, Rodney Hobson, Eric Richardson, Steve Reid, Terrence Hicks, Don Seelman, Steve Kinsey; second row - Coach Stuckwich, Efren Saunders, Bernard Lewis, Troy Wyche, Keith Carter, B.B. Adams, James Brockwell, Wilbur Miles, Coach Rudacille; back row - Frank Cotrell, Johnny Saunders, James Jemerson, Sam Otey, Kurk Allen, Hal Taylor, Donald Glascock, Dean Maxon.

After the final game, Eric Richardson, Steve Kinsey, Efren Saunders, Jesse Deerwester, Steve Reid, and Mike Johnson head back to the locker room where Coach Rudacille congratulates them on another fine season.

It is nice to see that it was happening to girls. This year I hope there will be a match with David the years.
Val Franklin

Going up for a shot is Tawana Demery, who gets another two points for the Devils while Barbara Goodman and Genelle Snodgrass keep watch for any turn of events.

Although surrounded by oppositions, Sharon Miffin squeezes in for that important rebound.

Slam-dunk

Up for a hook shot is Garland Johnson while Herman Johnson assists.

Straightening all out for the shot is James Brockwell.

Hoping for a scoring throw is Butch Durrette.

Bats And Bases

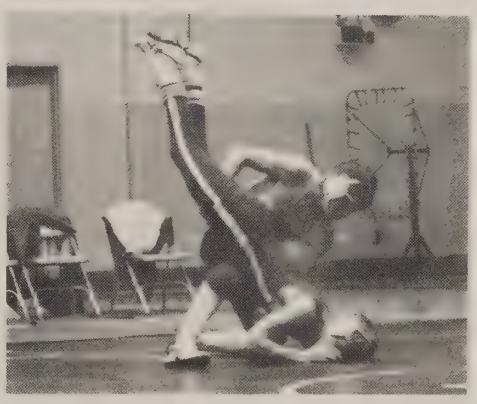
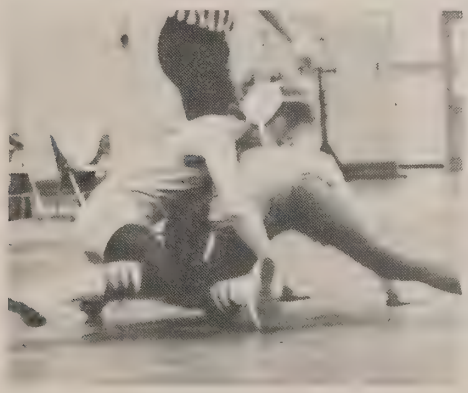
Thinking about the next ball helps Theron Richards psych himself up.

CHAMPS on the matt

The Varsity Wrestling team had a lot to be happy about this past season with an 8-5 record. Many of the returning wrestlers had improved. Coaches Mark Chamberlain and Woody Sanderford led the team through victories and defeats with the help of captains Russell Cannon, Curtis DeJong, and Buck Klee. While wrestling the teams in the Battlefield District, the wrestlers were also able to compete with teams such as Matoaca and L.C. Byrd, who are going to be in the Old Dominion District. Districts soon came and after many hard, sweaty practices, the team placed second to Orange. Out of the twelve team members participating, three placed first, three placed second, three placed third, and two placed fourth. The following week, these District winners practiced even harder for Regionals. Curtis DeJong, Russell Cannon, and Paul Parten placed in Regionals, allowing them to enter the State tournament. At State, Russell Cannon took fourth place, better than he did last year. Because of his achievements, he was elected MVP. Seniors included Curtis DeJong, Russell Cannon, Buck Klee, and Dale Bland.





J.V. Wrestlers; 1st row; Kirk ALlen, Randy Hall, Mark Temple, Joel Schmick, Coach Sanderford, 2nd; Bernie Morrell, Richard Wilkerson, Billy Phifer, Michael Brown.

On top is Randy Hall attempting to hold his opponent.

An attempt to teach his opponent how to so a handstand is Mark Temple.

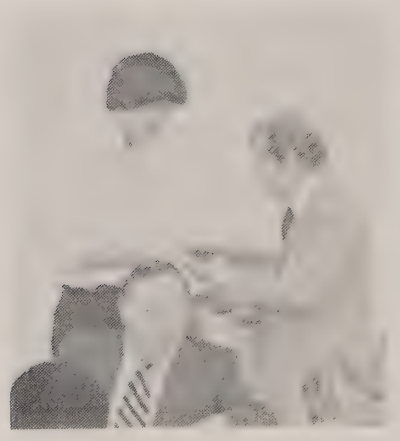
In an effort to pin, Richard Wilkerson looks like he is on top.

The victor of his match is Kirk Allen.

An outstanding - player award for soccer was given to Charles Wajciechowski by Coach Stuckwisch, while Coach Doub checks his notes.

Excited cheerleaders Jolynn Broaddus, Charlyn Griffith, and Terri Redford make a letter with their pompoms.

One last look is made by the quarterback Andy Allanson to check the line of players including Darly Metheny, Wayne Shanko, Michael Wright, John Brockwell, Mike McCabe, and Mike Rudisill.



Sport's Highlights

With ease and accuracy, Mike Johnston pitches a ball.

Ready to seize his opponent is Curtis DeJong.

An easy out is made by Polly Guard when she tagged first base while T.J. Somerville assisted.

The dull routine of school was broken occasionally by a designated hat day, more often by Craig Mize and Dave "Dilly" Crosby.

Is it a matador from Spain? No! It's Kay Tolley!!!!

A pep rally would be dull without Erin Park, Ann Wilson, David Carter, Dawn Westbrook, Rita Presser, Julie Morrow, Joy Conway, Chris Mulligan, Charity Wenger, Lorne Crabtree, Kieth Davis, Paris Auerbach, Bill Nelson, LaDonna Owen, Ben Koontz, Terry Thinasen, Gene Fitz, and Steve King.

Special organizers Todd Buheller, Dennis Hancock, and Polly Guard wait for FBLA presentations to begin.

Dressed in honor of hat day are Malinda Wilkerson, Kathy Mclean, and Ann Wilson.

HONOR

The Beta Club, sponsored by Mrs. Lucille Truehart, made seven hundred dollars by selling candy, merry bells, M&Ms, candles, and brushes.

According to Charles Wajciechowski, president, the Beta Club has been a good experience for its members not only because of its activities but also because of the characteristics of Beta.

A little joke should calm the nerves before a tapping ceremony. Rick Reynolds, Mike Wolpert, and Ann Wilson seem to agree.

With quiet respect and pride, Vice-President Craig Schettino and President Charles Wajciechowski start the induction service.

STUDENTS

The National Honor Society consisted of the most active seniors in Varina who still kept up their grades amid the hassle of activities. Leadership, scholarship, service, and character are the qualifications for membership. The William H. Ferguson Chapter had a tapping ceremony which was attended by Mr. Ferguson himself. Mrs. Susan DuPont sponsored NHS.

Grinning ear to ear, Joy Conway pins the NHS emblem on newly-inducted Anita Wajciechowski.

Being tapped by Anthony French, Dawn Westbrook attempts to look composed while Larry Davis and Bryan Wade look on.

PARTICIPATION?

Sponsored by Mrs. Hill and Miss McCouch, SCA flourished. Officers Kim Baxter, Mike McCabe, Malinda Wilkerson, and Donna Hughes worked to get the spark of enthusiasm to grow into a flame. SCA took charge of Homecoming and produced the Homecoming book. SCA also sponsored a Sweetheart dance in February, and the few that attended enjoyed the music.

To raise needed funds, they sponsored a successful magazine drive and helped the school pay for the new Xerox machine. SCA also sponsored a Leadership workshop for the officers of all the clubs. Representatives finally caught the flame a little too late as May came, and campaigns and elections had to be held. New officers were installed on Class Day.

SCA: 1st row: Donna Hughes, Malinda Wilkerson, Mike McCabe, Kim Baxter. 2nd row: Ramon Ranson, Anthony French, Candace Walton, Julie Chenault, Rita Presser, Dawn Westbrook, Mary Long, Renee Wade. 3rd row: Mike Perry, Lisa Lang, Bobby Flippen, Charles Coro, Chris Mitchell, Margaret Epps, Susan Campbell, Jack White. 4th row: Sanford Durrette, Renee Hall, Carl Ellis, Vanessa Moore, Connie Lett, Sharon Kirk, Lisa Sherry. 5th row: Lori James, Larry Davis, Renii Barnes, Christine Eberhart, Kim Loscomb, Bryan Wade, Bobby Aveson. 6th row: Derek Thorpe, Terri Smith, Debbie Zeno, Susan Melton, Tracey Butler, Tammy Edwards, Randy Mulik, Pam Cash, Jennifer Aigner, Stokes McCune, Sam Thomas. 7th row: Miss McCouch, Mrs. Hill, Regina Young, Theresa Uzel, Mike Edwards, Bobby Brooke, Robert Lamphire, Mike Anderson, Bobby Jones, Randy Hardy.

WEDDINGS

The future Homemakers of America, incorporated into the Home Economics department and led by Mrs. Vana, worked together towards the annual father and daughter banquet and the fashion show at the P.T.A. meeting.

The two combined to put on the spring weddings in the Family Living classes, and to hold the playschool for pre-school children. The club had a very successful year and looks forward to a better year next fall.

FBLA, led by Mrs. Headley, had a fulfilling year. Participants in competitions won awards, and Mary Keating succeeded Caroline Lingerfelt as vice-president of the VCU region. Parliamentary Law team went to state compet1tion in Roanoke.

& COMPETITIONS

Because of their outstanding work, Todd Buheller awards Sue Melton and Caroline Lingerfelt with certificates.

The office of president will be the responsibility of Denise Fenne as she is charged with the duties by past president Todd Buheller, while Carl Ellis, Denise Boone, Cathy Beazley, Janis Washington, and Cindy Blair watch.

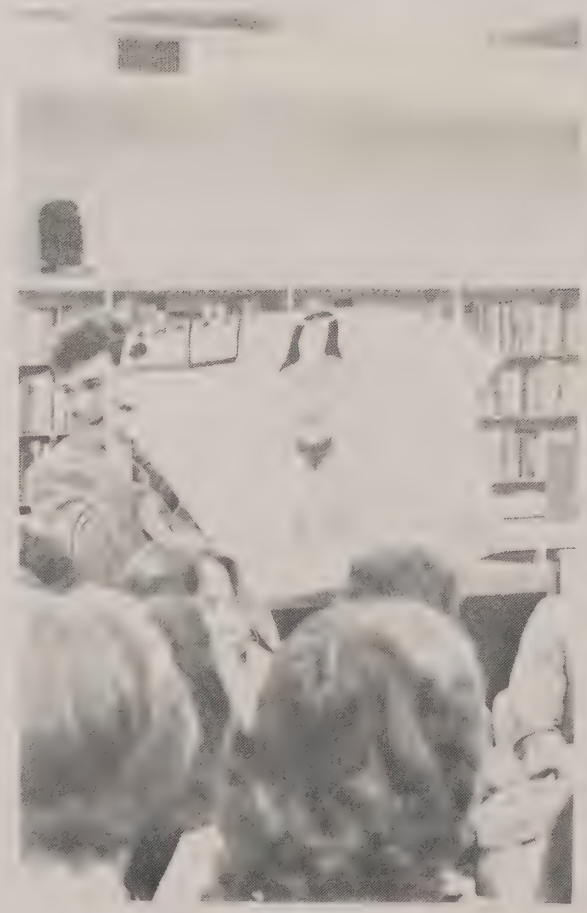
SUPER SODAS

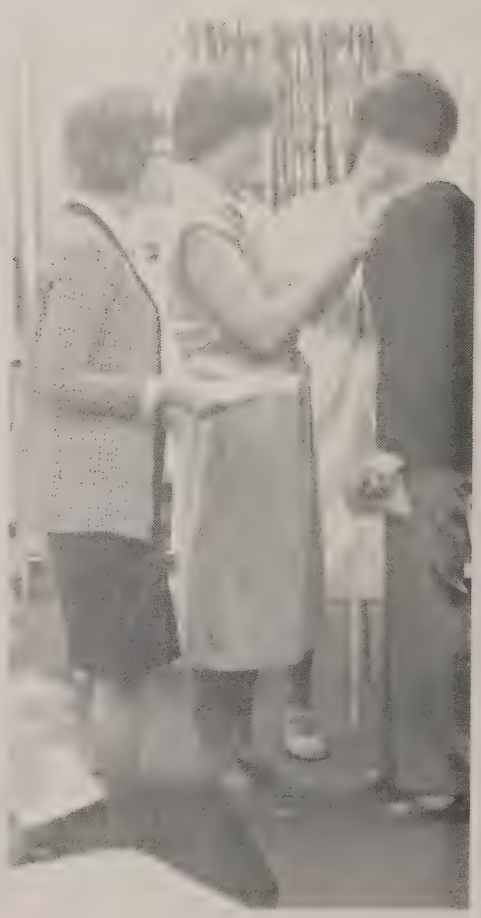
No one could write a list of concrete reasons why SODA is special to him in particular. SODA is a feeling — something hard to explain or put into words. That feeling can be anything from euphoria to total desperation, yet a member never quits because he would not only be letting himself down but he would be letting down fifteen to twenty bright-eyed, impressionable kids. SODA is that combination of relief and satisfaction when one had used his final explanation and example to illustrate an idea, and all of a sudden the kids actually grasp what he is saying and start firing back at him experiences they also had or questions of what they should do in this or that situation. SODA is a mixture of fifth, sixth, and seventh grade kids' personalities, thoughts, fears, and ambitions all jumbled in with the members'. As a SODA member, he must try to help develop those personalities, while miminizing those fears.

SODA: Kathy Moore, Mildred Holmes, Rita Presser, Renee Wade, Ann Wilson, Candace Walton, Mike Wright, Mama Baker, Shelia Sumrell, Carl Ellis, Dawn Westbrook, Terry Thimsen, Erin Park, Anthony French, Anne Canfield, Anita Wajciechowski, Joy Conway, Janis Washington, Janice Mills, Tim Pickney, Pam Brown, Emily Wells, Genelle Snodgrass, Frances Petres, Bill Nelson, Cindy Blair, Eric Sorensen, Randy Chenault, Karen Mills, Joel Schmick, George Henriques, Tim Trivellin, Butch Stoneman, Robbie Brandon, Dave Crosby.

A present to Malinda Wilkerson from her SODA class provides amusement for Terry Redford and Joel Schmick. Butch Stoneman displays The Art — Wonder Woman.

SODA Moms Mrs. Mary Geer and Miss Ray Baker pin the new SODA Mom, Miss Janice McCouch.





SUPER MOMS

Displaying his kick ball talent in front of his SODA students is Eric Sorenson.

DEADLINES MET

The "Devil's Advocate" had a real staff this year, composed of the Journalism class. Under the leadership of Mrs. Belinda Mercer and Mrs. Barbara Moore, the DA had the look of a real newspaper. The staff was recognized in competition when they placed second in a Richmond area contest.

Opposite: Checking articles for the news paper are Mrs. Belinda Mercer, Caroline Lingerfelt, and Genelle Snodgrass, while Mrs. Barbara Moore rests.

Interviewing actors from the Virginia Museum was a thrilling job for Craig Mize and Cathy McLean.

Discussing what should be put in the next issue of the DA is Tracey Rasnic.

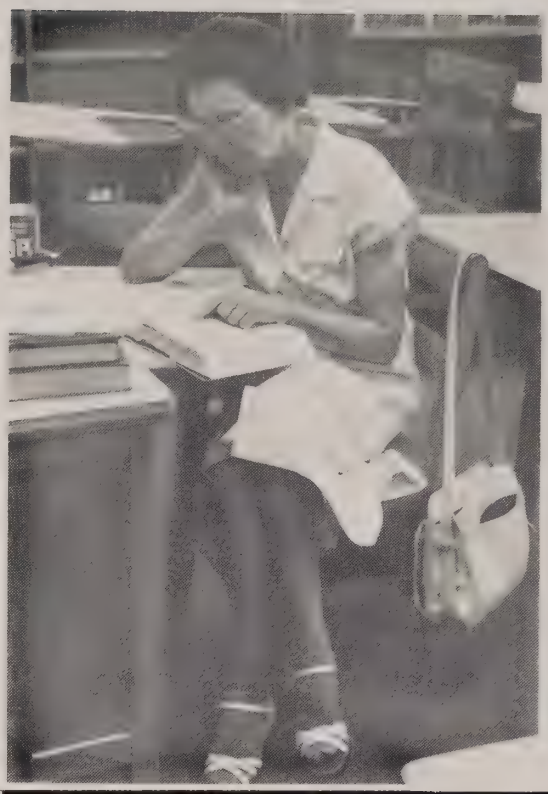
VERY FEW DO

The Yearbook Staff had an enormously large problem at the beginning of the year — there was no staff. Somehow, someway the guidance office had arranged the students' schedules so that they were placed in Journalism. This slight problem was overcome, and six of the thirteen returning staff members were actually able to return. We soon lost a member to an overload of activities, which brought the grand total to five.

Needless to say, we were at a disadvantage with two hundred pages to paste up with pictures, copy, and captions. This would equal out to forty pages a person, an enormous load for a mostly inexperienced staff. We pondered over headlines, wore out a thesaurus, and pulled hair over captions and copy. Pictures never seemed to get identified, copy was impossible to type, mistakes were made and corrected. The year came to a close, and eventually all the pages were mailed to the printer.

Goodbye and good luck to the two staffers remaining and to the new sponsor. Thank you's and deep appreciation to Mrs. Mistr and Mrs. Ward for their hard work, confidence in us, and patience with an inadequate staff.



WORK OF MANY

Her trusty camera always with her, Co-editor Anne Canfield pauses to have the tables turned as she poses for a picture.

Copy-writer Ann Wilson looks pensive as she searches for the right words to say what she means.

Latin Club: 1st row: Butch Stoneman, Randy Hall, Tracy Pollard, Stokes Mc Cune, Lynnleigh Smith, Dave Crosby. 2nd row: Bryan Cho, Tammy Edwards, Rita Presser, Pam Purks, Miss Mayo, Kim Hall. 3rd row: Jane Woods, Chuck Davis, Margaret Bassett, Rodney Hobson, Sharyn Robins, Felicia Andrews. 4th row: Mike Wood, Mark Hudson, Tim Pickney, Jon Hall, Lisa Trimmer, Terri Justice, Christie Williamson. 5th row: Richard Sweeney, Eugena Perry, Sharon Kirk, Barbara Woody, Jane Durrette, Debbie Weigl. 6th row: Trina Harris, Donna Lawrence, Lori Bowery, Lynette Poole, Carolyn Lingerfelt, Malinda Wilkerson, Kathy McLean, Dawn Westbrook. 7th row: Pam Estes, Angie Belfield, Chris Rudisill, Susan Clay, Paris Auerbach, Bobby Holmes. 8th row: Judy Trivellin, Leslie Wood, Mike Edwards, Bill Nelson, Edward Stoneman, Robbie Brandon. 9th row: Daryl Henshaw, Billy Dowdy, Philip Wright.

Tugging their hearts out are Brenda Campbell, Butch Stoneman, Rodney Hobson, and Randy Hall.

In the three-legged race, Sharyn Robins and Leslie Winstead have the skill mastered.

& FIESTAS

Pulling against the opposition is Chris Burnett, David Carter, Courtney Carneal, and Scott Pierce, while John Rutledge, Miss Bivens, and Mr. Bullington look on.

The finish line in sight, Steve Martin and Anthony French pour on the effort.

Foreign Cultures: Miss Somerville, Kim Hitchcock, Teresa Wayne, Paula Nuckols, Tracey Walker, Heidi Merz, James Brockwell, Julie Chenault, Karen Davis, Felicia Creech, Donna Heath, Cheryl Burton, Tawana Demery, Margaret Epps, Frances Brown, David Brandon, Sam Thomas.

During the year, many students not only faltered over verb tense, sentence structure, and correct pronunciation in English but also in Latin, French and Spanish. The foreign language department kept busy with the Foreign Cultures Club and the Latin Club.

THe Foreign Culture Club had a true "fiesta" when they finished their project of many different foods from many diffrent countries. Countries represented were the old faithfuls of France and Spain. The spring project was a field day between the two countries to prove who was the more durable and versatile.

The Latin club contributed to the beauty of Varina High by planting tulips in front of the brick V.H.S. sign. Members were also represented in the convention at Roanoke. This club rounded up the year with a trip to Busch Gardens.

Miss. Mayo was the head of the Foreign Languages department, and for the first time she stayed in school the entire day without going to other schools. Mrs. Oden was not so lucky. She spent half a day at John Rolfe Middle School.

Carrying cans collected for the Christmas Mother, Anthony French and Robbie Brandon struggle under the load.

DOUGHNUTS & DANCES

The Key Club, led by Anthony French, president, David Carter, vice-president, Robbie Brandon, secretary, and Craig Schettino, treasurer, sponsored two princesses in the Homecoming festivities. In December, they sponsored the Christmas Mother. Their annual dance was held in January. They raised money to send two members, Mike McCabe and David Taylor, to the National Convention at Virginia Beach to vote for a new governor and to give two $150 scholarships.

Important plans for future events are discussed by Charles Wajciechowski, Billy Dowdy, Mark Spain, Mike Kidd, John Rutledge, and Rick Kinsey.

OUTSTANDING

The VICA club was named the Outstanding Club in the state for the fifth year. VICA has received national, state, and district awards. At the state conference and contests, the club received first place in four categories. Vernon Booker won for Prepared Speech and Outstanding Student of the Year. The Club received a first for Safety and Most Outstanding Club. In the Plumbing contest, Tim Plaster placed third. VICA's successful community activities included raising $900 for Chad Turner, a Christmas program for Cerebral Palsy Center, blood drive, a ski trip, the annual banquet, and the employee-employer basketball game.

A cheerful carol is sung by Vernon Booker, Bobby Brooke, Ronnie Cheatham, Doug Bowles, Lori Allanson, Randy Baker, and Mike Johnston.

One outstanding DECA member was Robert Johnson.

Arranging condiments for the dinner customers at his job is Mark Dunnigan.

The Thespian Club, led by Mrs. Belinda Mercer, did not have regular club meetings. They did, however, produce "Up the Down Staircase" and "South Pacific." Members were involved in building sets, painting scenery, acting, or "go-fering," or a combination of these. Ten new persons were granted membership after collecting the required number of points and completing the physical requirements. Tricks and foolishness helped to make this year successful and fun-packed.

Acting like "theatre" people in a new comedy role are Bryan Wade, Craig Mize, Randy Hall, Dave Crosby, Richard Yates, Stokes Mc Cune, Anthony French, Kathy Mc Lean, Dawn Westbrook, Tracey Pollard, Janice Mills, Craig Schettino, Karl Wolpert.

ACTIVE CLUBS

The forensic team had a very rewarding season. The six members were able to advance successfully from district to regional level. Madison College became the battleground for regionals. The squad was not as successful at this stage but did manage to win two first places in original oratory. Anne Canfield and Bryan Wade advanced to state level. Bryan Wade won third at state, and at the end of the season the team was named most outstanding in Battlefield District.

Forensics Team: Anita Wajciechowski, Anne Canfield, Janice Mills, Bryan Wade, Vernon Booker, Mrs. Belinda Mercer. Lori Walker not pictured.

SINGERS & TOOTERS

(Opposite) Ready for the night's performance are Robbie Brandon, Erin Park, Billy Dowdy, and Debbie Zeno.

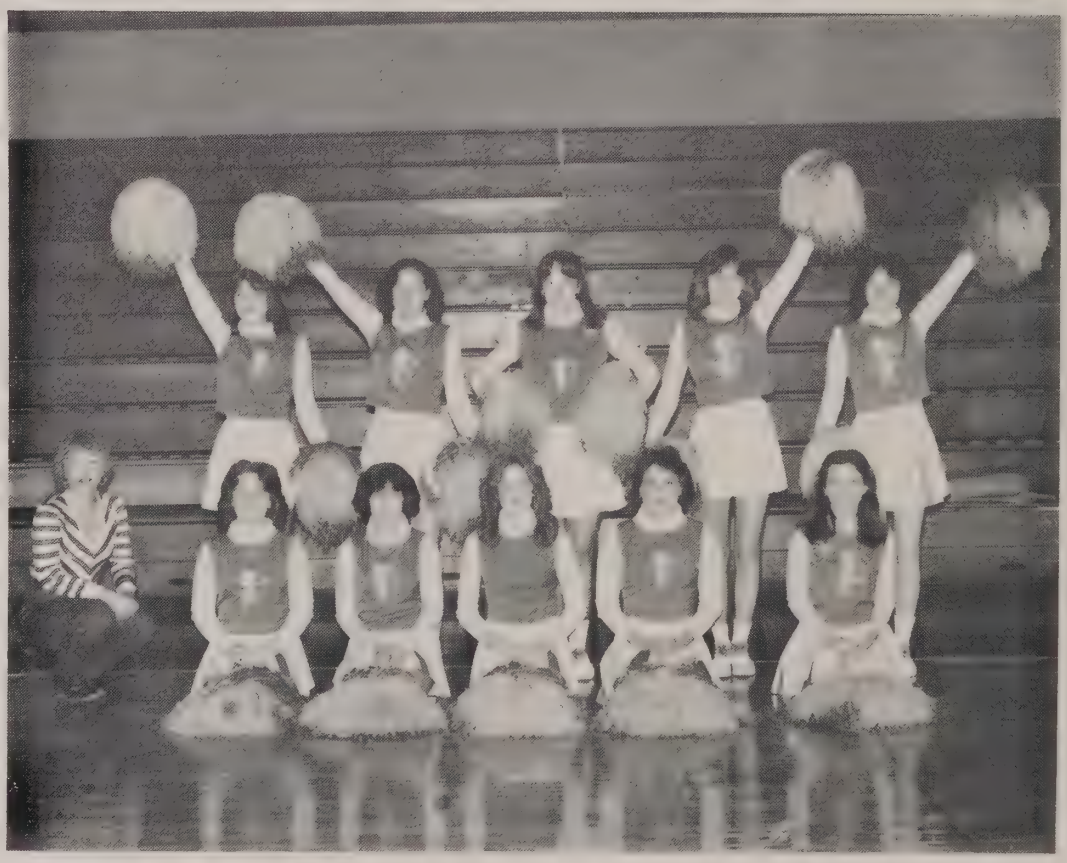
LET'S GET

Tryouts led to the choosing of the finest Varina had to offer to cheer our teams to VICTORY. The Varsity Squad, headed by Mrs. Dorsey, found fund raising was easy by selling tons of M&M's. This money went to provide a bus to away games. After a heavy and exhausting fall season, the winter sports were upon them before they could catch their breath. Although off to a slow start, by the end of the season each cheerleader was as exhausted as the athelete at the conclusion of a game. With practices and tryouts a newer squad will fill the saddle oxfords of our departing seniors.



To convey a message, Kim Hall and Riva Dean wave their hands.

Excitement moves Kim Seelman, Charlynn Griffith, Jolynn Broaddus, and Terri Redford.

PSYCHED UP

Cheerleaders: 1st row: Mrs. Caroly Dorsey, Tammy Williams, Kim Hall, Lisa Lang, Dottie Fuller, Riva Dean; 2nd row: Jolynn Broaddus, Charlynn Griffith, Terri Redford, Emily Wells, Kim Seelman.

The traditional jump by Jolynn Broaddus ends the cheer.

Using her body helps Lisa Lang to capture the crowd's attention.

PRACTICE

JV Cheerleaders: Tracie Robinson, Jennifer Aigner, Chris Friend, Becky Skinner, Angie Aigner, Karen Mills, Kim Brown, Sabrian Adkins, Crystal Oakley, Penny Lovings.

Looking to the stands, Jennifer Aigner leads the school in a cheer.

The cheers seem easy when Chris Friend does them.

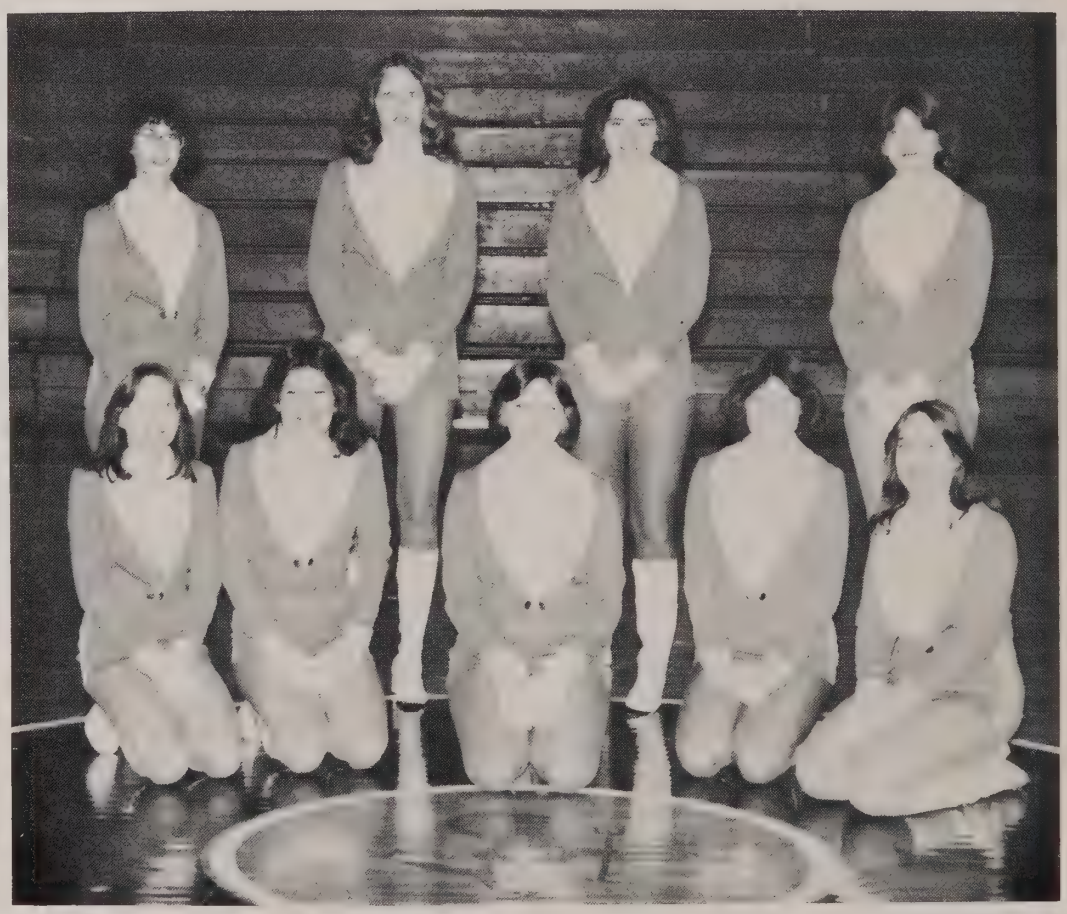
SUPERIOR SQUADS

The flagtwirlers also participated in every home and away football game. The squad went to the Virigina State Fair Competition and the Azalea parade with the band. On Flagtwirlers appreciation night, captain Charlotte Bohr received a trophy for most outstanding Flagtwirler.

All the Seniors - Kay Tolley, Tracy Fussell, Terri Wright, Charlotte Bohr, - received trophies for their participation and dedication to the squad.



Stepping to the beat of the music are Rhonda Marshall, DeAnn Conley, and Jane Durrette.

HADDI LIFE

The band front squads - majorettes, and flagtwirlers had a varied season.

The majorettes were judged a truly superior squad. The first major award was won in the Viriginia State Fair Competition where they placed first in the AA division and third in all around competition. A special honor was performing at Willow Oaks Country Club during its German Festival. During the band exchange at Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania, the majorettes gave a special performance. On Majorette appreciation night Seniors Debbie Eccleston and Kim Hitchcock received a trophy for leadership.

Majorettes: Marsha Fisher, Denise Fenne, Kim Hitchcock, Sharon Kirk, Debbie Eccleston.

Keeping time to the music during their routine are Marsha Fisher, and Debbie Eccleston.

Getting ready to perform during pep rally is Captain Kim Hitchcock.

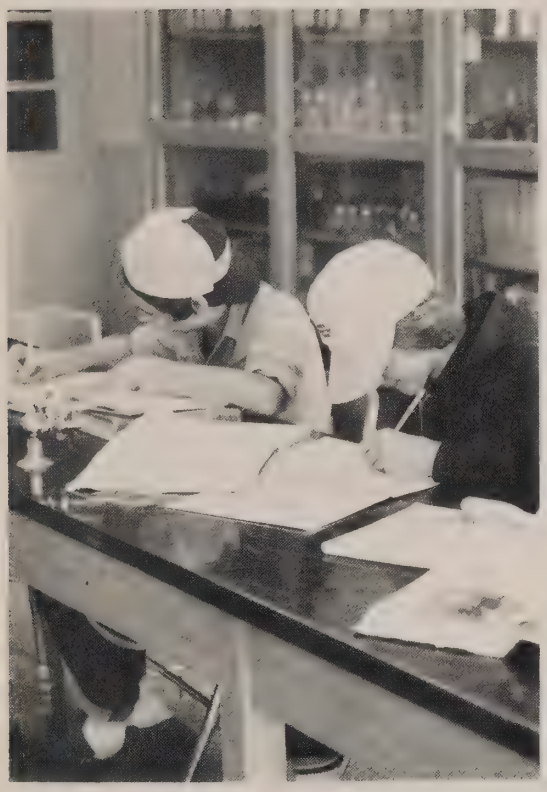
ACADEMICS

Coach Sanderford's second period "scientists" perform feats such as the ones shown of Erin Park and Rita Stewart skinning a cat, and David Taylor and Tim Pickney checking to see if they are still alive.

Problems Presented



Science as always was an important subject in everyone's schedule. Although the same things were taught as in years past, new methods were tried.

Mrs. Shirey's class planted shrubbery, Mr. Cox moved to physical science, and Mrs. Lovings taught her children all the complicated facts of Chemistry that they could stuff into their heads. Life in F-Building with Coach Sanderford went on as usual with disections, notes, labs and even some cultures. Coach Sanderford was aided by a student teacher "Charles" from V.C.U.

Coach Chamberlain taught Physics, which presented problems to many, but those who mastered it became the winners.

Two budding Einsteins study to pass one of Mr. Cox's science tests.

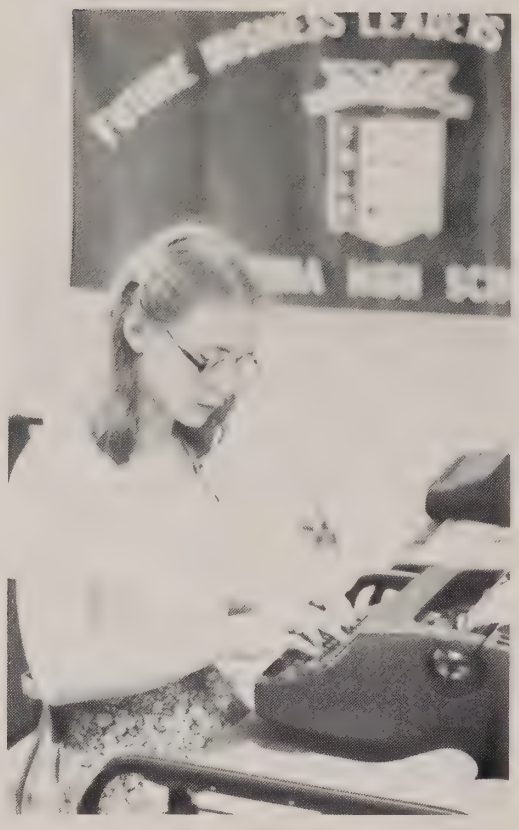
Seeds were planted by Brenda Campbell and Terri Smith for a plant reaction lab.

Beautifying the school by planting azaleas are Crystal Oakley and Wendy Bass.

Business As Usual

The Business Department, led by Mrs. Hill, experienced an outstanding year. Many students signed up for skills courses ranging from beginning typing to stenography and business economics. Many of the business students joined FBLA and helped raise money for the chapter. They aided in the March of Dimes Walkathon and sponsored a comparison shopping taste test. Many of the club members attended Regional Competition and placed in several of the events. Mary Keating became the vice president of the V.C.U., FBLA region. The members who placed at regionals went on to attend State Competition at Roanoke. All members were very active, and top honors were bestowed on 11 members.

The Business Department with the cooperation of the teachers and students had an exceptional year.

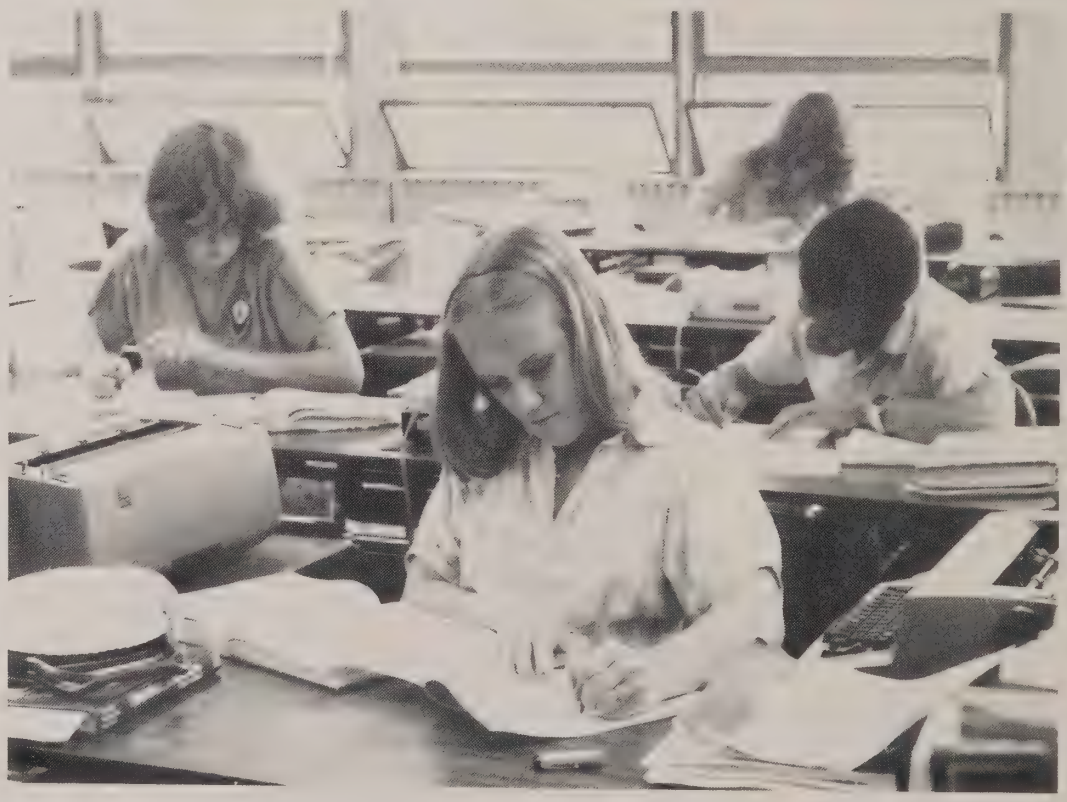


Trying to beat time but still being careful enough not to make mistakes is Terry Thimsen.

Concentrating on the day's assignment helps Cathy Cook to finish.

Setting the typing machine to the correct position to begin again is Bridget Brown.

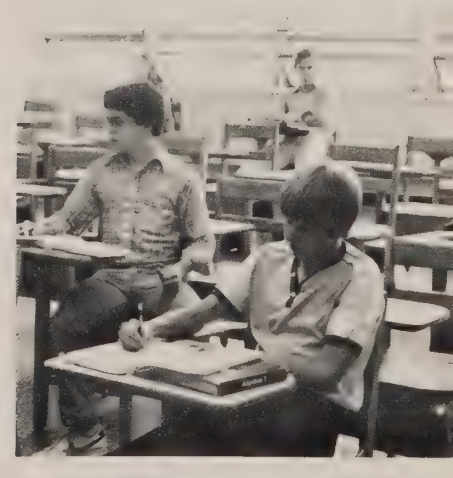
Some day the facts learned in accounting may pay off in their own firm for Mary Keeting, Candace Walton, Cindy Dunkum, and Bruce White.



The unconquerable was conquered in Math classes around Varina. Seemingly impossible problems, were solved with ease once the students grasped the theorems. The word problems stumped everyone at first, but they arose and went on to capture calculus. Many students came out of J building much wiser for being there.

Obviously enjoying her class, Chris Friend flashes her smile.

Placing their concentration on everything but math are Linda Murphy, Sean Dalton, Ramon Ranson, and Mike Johnston.



Essentials Learned

The Industrial Arts course included many different classes. Any interest could be filled somewhere in M building. The graphic Arts class led by Mr. Heflin produced a book on reading a rule, while his photography class learned the ins and outs of cameras and darkrooms. Mr. Nelson's shop class rebuilt motors and made grills among other often unique objects. Mr. Rolland's Mechanical Drawing class tackled architecture with a complete "working plan," while his basic drawers learned the essentials of drafting.

The skills learned are sure to be beneficial to all as well as the recognition and awards recieved, at the Annual Arts & Technology Festival.

"It's done this way." seems to say Suzy Javins to Darryl Charity in Graphic Arts class.

Surprised by the camera is Betsy Matthews.

Lounging a hard job is Roy Richers, James Bogan David Jones, and Mark Ingram.

The FHA carried out the program of work set up by the state to the fullest. This organization was smoothly run by President Donna Lawrance. Fellow officers working with her were secretary Karen Smith, and Treasurer Athelia Givens. Karen Smith was elected County secretary for next year. FHA looks forward to another equally successful year. The family living classes held their spring weddings with the whole class taking part as either a member of the party or as servers, helping the students learn the basic fundalmentals of life. The Home Economics Department underwent changes as the staff was cut back to just one instructor.

Congratulating the groom (Darryl Metheny) are Randy Mulik and Bruce White.

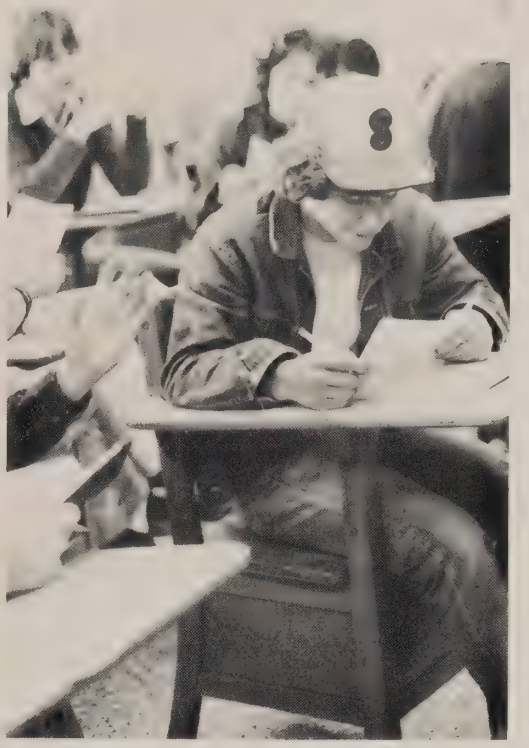
Making it just right is Caroline Ferrell.

Observing Mrs. Vana is Caroline Ferrell, Lisa Capart, Catherine Petres, Chris Mitchell, and Sonya Harris.

The bride and her attendants are Jolyn Broaddus, Scarlet Parr, Lisa Ford, Kay Tolley, Karyn Metee, and the flower girl.

Although it is an English class, Tawana Démery, Louis Bausone, Tim Mize and Greg Fleming seem to be enjoying it.

The Final Thesis



The English Department has had a very eventful year. The first blessing was the move off the hill into E building, which meant the library was practically just around the corner instead of at the bottom of the hill, a total of five buildings away. The next blessing, primarily reserved for the teachers, was having a resource room that was bigger than a closet. Although the school population enlargement coming next year threatens the practicality of keeping the resource room as such, they are enjoying it as long as they can. Another anticipated change involves the elective system. Mini courses were modified in that the 9th and 10th grades were moved as a class each nine weeks. That move was just the beginning of the transition back to the old system of the students having the same teacher as well as the same classmates for the two semesters.

Explaining in detail her oral English report is Jackie Wine, to the delight of James Brockwell and Kevin Mitchell.

Intrigued by their scores are Harold Wayne, Julie Chenault, and Bubba Morrell.

A Barrell of Monkies! This class includes tricksters Mike Wilson, David "Babycakes" Taylor, Dave "Dilly" Crosby, Stokes McCune, Craig Mize, Bubba Harlow, Darryl Metheny, and Dale Bland.

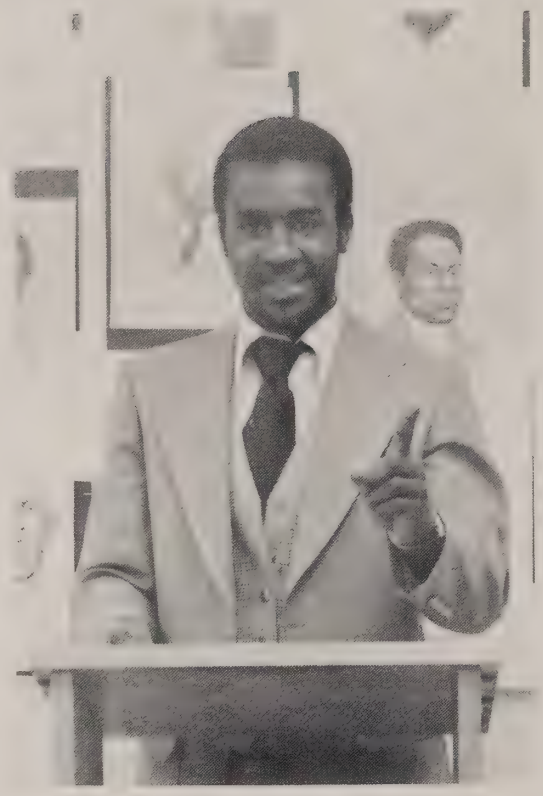
Reciting literature is just another trial Wanda Wash endures. Supposedly listening intently is Monique Sommerville, David Taylor, and Lisa Osby.

Projects, Slides, Work

History repeats itself, and no exception to the cliche occurrred. With the oil crunch still with us, a few field trips were cancelled and a few materialized to give students a needed relief from the classroom.

T.V., 16 mm's, and slide projectors continued to roll while teachers burned the midnight oil to think of other ways to motivate their students.

The social studies department had the distinction of having more part1es to welcome the new additions to their "staff" than all other departments combined, Every six weeks upon a new arrival, a board substitute joined the ranks to fill the vacant space. With the time line completed, school ended.



Showing his skill at speaking is Vernon Booker.

Giving serious thought to his work is Dennis Hancock while Mark Hudson, Kathy Herndon, and Debbie Eccleston try to get the camera's attention.

Representing their states in the primary are Kim Ranson, Bill Nelson, Paul Mullins, Daryl Henshaw, Becky Matthews, Mike Johnson, and David Taylor while Mrs. Mills watches.

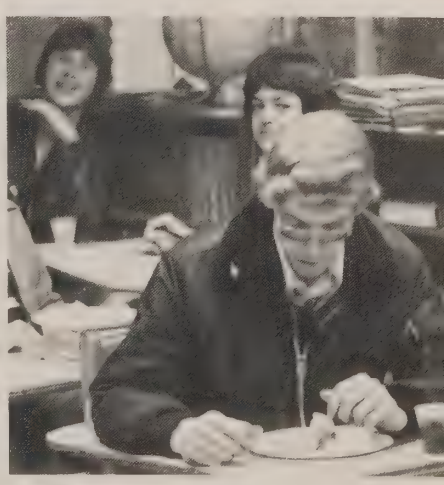
Researching a subject is Lori Bowery.

This year the Foreign Languages decided to stage their own Language Olympics. Events included the Backwards Run, three-legged race, and a tug-of-war, among the major languages; Latin, Spanish, and French.

Life will never be the same for all those trying to understand why one had to know English to speak in other tongues.

As Richard Stoneman, Kim Hall, and Brenda Campbell show signs of strain, onlookers Sam Rapp, Robin Turner, Tracey Pollard, Candace Walton, Wendy Bass, Mike Wilson and Miss Mayo give their support with cheers and large smiles.

A change of pace in French class occurred as Mark Spain, Damon Parker, and Theron Richards tasted French delights.



Not All Fun

Rehearsals were long, hard, and sometimes fruitless. Would the girls ever get their backrolls right? Would the boys ever enunciate on "Dames"?

Suddenly it seemed as though time was running out. THe proposed performance dates of May 1, 2, and 3 seemed much too close. The orchestra had to practice with the cast, lights had to be focused, scenery painted, props finished,. Yet, with the incredible guidance of Mrs, Mercer, every one gave their all that last week and, as always, everyone was almost ready for opening night.

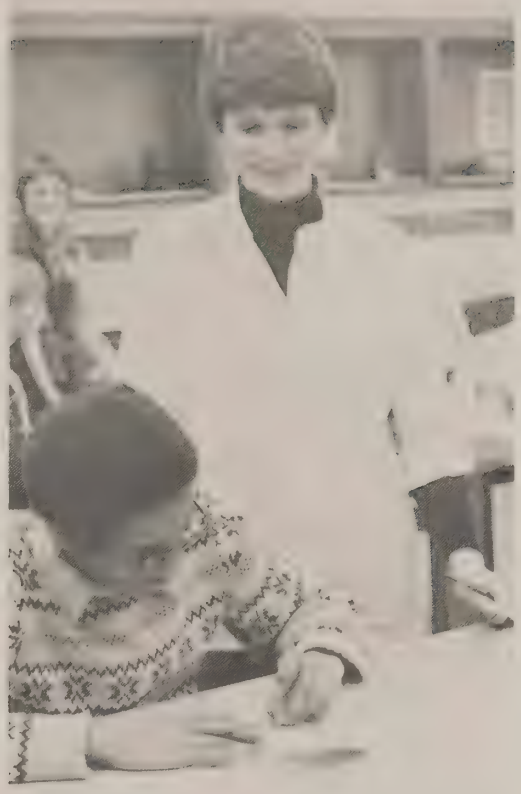
The hard work of the cast, crew, and orchestra became visible. The tremendous audience response and unsurpassed performances of all those associated with "South Pacific" rapidly assured the play a spot alongside the great Varina musicals of the past.

Saturday night, with tears of joy and sadness, the great play "family" separated, each member carrying a special experience of the part he played in "South Pacific."

Magician Brad Boyington helps Rhonda Harfield finish some scenery for South Pacific.

A fight captivates the attention of Robbie Brandon, Craig Mize, and Anthony French, while Richard Yates and Stokes McCune provide the entertainment.

The art of weaving is mastered by Mia Marable.



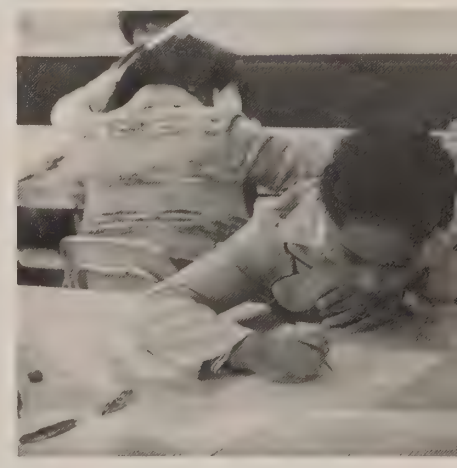
Students with artistic ability found an outlet for it in L-4, Ms. McCouch's art room. Even if no ability exsisted, students were made to believe so. The classes did the usual pen and ink, watercolor, pottery, and macrame, but they also helped paint the scenery for "South Pacific" and the prom. Whether the students needed counsel for art or not, they found an ear in L-4.

Although prepared for the worse, John Colgin strives for perfection.

Perfection is essential to Floyd Adkins, as Ms. McCouch supervises his work.

What's so hard about Art? Mickey Hula and Floyd Adkins seem to have no problems.

At work on her Art project is Karyn Trimmer.



The old cliche, "Practice makes perfect." is verified by Regina Young, Cheryl Doanes, Deborah Guisinger, Martie O'Leary, Joe Dunn, Larry Davis, Janice Boothe, Margaret Baget, Lori Roane, Wanda Wash, Crystal Ellis, Stacie Mares, Michelle Costen, Martie Young, and Lisa Washington.

"Make Mine Music"

The music department, consisting of Band and Chorus, united their talents on two occasions. The annual Christmas program was performed twice consecutively featuring the Vocal Ensemble, Madrigals, the Concert Band, and the Stage Band.

This year's musical, "South Pacific," included many versatile performers from both Chorus and Band. On stage, band members proved they could also belt out a vocal tune while the members of chorus proved their dramatic ability. The orchestra consisted of band members and alumni who were brave enough to tackle Rogers and Hammerstein's style.

Strumming his banjo is Mike Perry.

Singing her heart out is Dawn Westbrook; accompan1ng her is Charles Wajciehowski and Robbie Brandon.

Practicing before the next show is Terry Thimsen, Bryan Wade, Erin Park and Ann Wilson.

Prepared for the next concert is Butch Durrette and Robbie Rhoads.

Sweat It Out

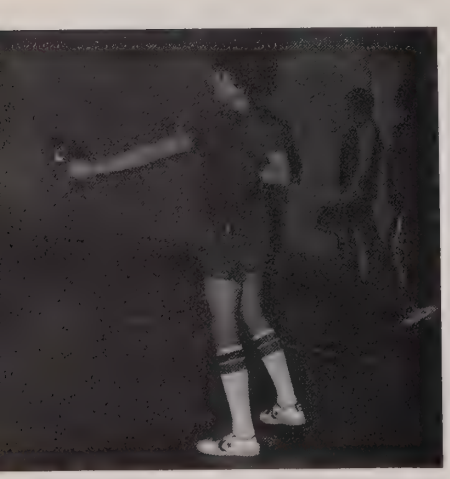
The Physical Education department, headed by Coach Rudicille, boasted of a very successful year. With the separation of the middle school students from the high school students, the classroom/physical education improved 100%. There was more room for everyone. The five-member staff held four classes a period — two in the health classrooms and two in the immediate grounds. Co-ed gym was in its third year and adjustments were still being made, but things seemed to run smoothly. One noteworthy achievement was that the ninth graders were being taught the crucial, life-saving skill of Cardiac Pulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) along with the First Aid Course. Many of these students recieved their certification in this course as qualified first-aiders.

Returning the serve is Kriste Williamson while Charlotte Johnson watches.

Bumping the ball is Everette Mason.

Aiming for the target is Angie Aigner, Marian Marten, Valerie Bethea, and Tracy Bell.

Coming from a backhand is Ted Andre.



Though they pause for a rest, Tracy Bell and Lori Bowery nevertheless make good use of our excellent library facilities.

Time passed —

The summer ended and teachers returned, some happily and some reluctantly. They were greeted with news of a self-improvement program provided by the Central Office After many plan period sessions and class visitations, the instructors produced certificates showing proficiency in The Science of Teaching for each participant.

And once again we studied under board substitutes for a great part of the year as new members were welcomed into the families of Mmes. Moore, Haskins, Gaino, Mills, and Spanberger. The Social Studies Department led the English Department four to one.

Paid Pass Writers

A new face appeared in the main office as Mrs. Stuckwisch replaced Mrs. Ruth Yahley, who retired after many years as Mr. Fox's secretary. Mrs. Yahley wisely retired in April to "enjoy the spring weather." Faculty and staff wished her well at an after-school get-together.

Meanwhile, the Social Committee kept busy throughout the year to relieve the tedium of teaching. On the mornings of the pre-school work days, coffee, sweet rolls, and conversation preceded the "getting-down-to-business."

A new idea this year was the trim-the-tree party; teachers who wished to participate brought an ornament for the Christmas tree in the library. These will be saved and used from year to year along with the new ones from new teachers.

Various Talents Abound

The Christmas party was held in the library during fourth period. An added attraction was that many former teachers came to visit during this time, and conversation frequently included news of added family members and new careers.

Finally, students departed and teachers and staff celebrated with a covered-dish luncheon. Some students, who think that teachers crawl into the woodwork at night, would be surprised to discover that they do normal things well and that cooking is one of them.

Other attractions during the year, supposedly unknown to students, were the Friday Happy Hours, frequently held in the home of a faculty member. Teachers, too, must unwind on Friday.

Yes, time passed — a week more slowly this year because of snow days. But Fri- the 13th arrived and teachers sighed — with relief.

Beat The Clock

Another activity we sponsored was "Beat the Clock." Teams consisted of five pairs of students from each of the four classes. Teams competed in a race blindfolded around cones, a race with inner tubes, a tennis toss, a soccer ball match, and a ping-pong ball target shoot. The activity was a success with freshmen winning ten dollars, and the seniors and sophomores tying for second, winning two-fifty.

Fearless Leaders

From forensics to football, from musicals to mathmatics, the sophomores participated as the opportunities became greater. Headed by president Marsha Fisher, vice-president Connie Lett, secretary Denise Tibbs, and treasurer Sharon Kirk, our class was supportive of the sales occurring throughout the year. The items sold spanned the gamut from oranges and doughnuts to ink pens and stuffed animals. All campaigns were firected towards next year's sponsorship of the prom.

Defensive Driving

We were able to experience many new classes ranging from Biology-requiring hours of tedious dissection - to Driver's Education - weaving through a maze of orange pylons set in an impossibly complicated pattern. A new class room building on the range also gave Coach Wilson and Mrs. Daniels a home. Anxious fifteen-year-olds awaited the day when they would be able to visit the Division of Motor Vehicles to earn that coveted learner's permit.

Looking over her science notes, Kristy Harding prepares for a quiz.

Presenting a safety club award to Mary Keating is a Driver's Ed speaker as Mrs. Daniel looks on.

The Long Haul

"Rings are encircled with memories of the past." We took the opportunity to capture a piece of our history at Varina by ordering our class rings. Sore fingers and sunburst stones were the mementos of our Sophomore year.

Passing the time of day is Sam Thomas, Theresa Wayne, Melany Groome, Dawn Bergerich, and Jimmy Coughan.

Homebound student Ricky Moses excels in his studies, but his friends miss having him in class.

Final Gym Year

Participation in school organizations and athletics was greatly enhanced by the enthusiasm of the tenth graders. Interests ranged from band and forensics competition (in which Bryan Wade placed third in State!) to the spring musical and both Junior Varsity and Varsity athletic teams. Theron Richards was voted the most valuable player on the J.V. Basketball team and graduated to the Varsity team at the end of the season. Another outstanding sophomore athlete was Varsity Basketball starter Skeeter Paige, who performed excellently and showed future promise as a Blue Devil basketball star.

Servers Delight

A few daring sophomores jump at the chance of attending the prom as servers. Meetings were held to decide on the costumes and responsibilities. Each one was to provide his own outfit. At the prom, they served refreshments, trying to make the fantasy come true for the juniors and seniors.

Servers Wayne Shanko, Eric Schesventer, Squeaky Cridlin, Joel Schmick live it up.

Anticipation

Half-time we sat on the edge of our seats in anticipation. Our hard work paid off, however, as we placed second. We then approached the problem of raising money for the prom. Our first project was collecting aluminum cans. Although participation was not great, the few who turned out made several pick-up truck deliveries to Reynolds Metal.

Raising money by participating in the junior-Faculty Basketball game are Mr. Burgess, Jerry Hooper, and Arnold Roots.

Recycling. Another fund-raiser was the sale of jewelry. Our biggest project was the junior faculty basketball game. As always, the faculty won, but everyone enjoyed the event. Because of a shortage of acts, Spotlight '80 was cancelled. The loss of this important source of income put restrictions in our budget. The question of whether the prom would be held was soon answered, though - with a yes.

As we got settled in Varina, we initiated the thought of electing class officers. president was Bobby Sandford; vice-president was Tommy Trivillen; secretary was Marie Glassco; and treasurer was Timmy Trivillen. With that established, our sponsor, Miss Wilson, started us on our way.

As we kept up with school and our exciting exploratory classes, the next item on the agenda was taken up. "We've Only Just Begun" was the theme of our seventh grade dance. L-2 cafeteria was transformed very nicely to fit the setting. Several dance contests livened up the occasion, and as the evening ended we felt a sense of accomplishment.

To complete our year, we took our exams and looked forward to what the summer vacation had in store for us.

Of '80

In September, 1975, the Class of 1980 again returned to Varina with one year of experience behind us. With the help of Miss Zimmerman, our class sponsor, the eighth grade class was able to begin its projects with a float for homecoming.

A new course was offered us, Career Education, and many students accepted the challenge. Field trips and reports helped make career decisions come easily.

In spring, we again tackled exams and marched out on class day as rising freshman ready to face our high school years.

Finally, we had the label of FRESHMAN! We were a mixture of 294 students from Varina and Fairfield Middle Schools. We were destined to be the most unusual and successful group of teenagers yet to be brought together.

But to our rescue came Mrs. Mills' history project. Who could forget the BIG DIG!! We selected our civilizations and made and buried artifacts that depicted the culture; then the monsoon began. As it rained for five days, our excavation pit was a big mud-hole. This type of excitement gave us a glimpse of our school years to come.

As spring approached, we got the usual "Spring Fever" and awaited June anxiously. Many freshman eagerly participated in the school plays such as "Scapino" and "Fiddler On The Roof." As the year rolled by, we found ourselved fitting right in with the rest of high school.

After another lazy summer, we entered Varina once more with a new status. As sophomores we brought many headaches to our class sponsor, Mrs. Thompson. Our first successful feat was electing class officers! Riva Dean was president; Charlyn Grifith, vice-president; Marie Glassco, secretary; and Mathilde Inge, treasurer. We attempted a float for homecoming. Our officers made important decisions such as the early arrival of our class rings.

As Sophomores we were very active in sports. Many clubs — FBLA, DECA, VICA, and SODA, had sophomores as active members.

As usual, most of us participated in Driver's Education in our sophomore year. Coach Wilson and Mrs. Daniel's nerves and patience wore thin, but we had unforgettable experiences on the range and on the road as well as in the simulator. It was worth it, as we proudly owned our Driver's License.

Biology was another highlight of most sophomore's schedules. It was more than just reading, taking notes, and answering questions. We had the memories of disecting cats (p.a.w.'s, that is). We had to endure the jokes and threats of broken mandibles and kicked glutous maximus. Yet we survived biology and promised Coach to become fellow mad scientists.

"Service with a Smile" was the motto of some sophomores who were selected to serve at the Prom. With the theme "Saturday In The Park," we had a foretaste of what we would experience next year.

As we received our rings in spring, we were proud to perform a first in Varina's history: the first class to receive class rings in their Day many received certificates and awards. As June arrived, we marched out of the auditorium on Class Day as rising Juniors. With only two more years of high school to complete, no one believed how fast our graduation would come.

Finally, Juniors. We could not believe it! We began our junior year full of hope and anticipation. We had seen the problems of classes before, and we set out to pick the right people for the job of running our class. We elected President Robbie Brandon, Vice-President Leonard Wingfield, Secretary Riva Dean, and Treasurer Jolyn Broaddus. One change we made was having a representative from each homeroom on the advisory committee for the class. Each of these representatives had the responsibility of keep-

Fund raising activities included the selling of shelled pecans, the annual basketball game with the added attraction of the Battle of the Classes, and the Variety Show, Spotlight.

In the midst of all this fund raising, class members were making an individual effort to promote sports and other activities. Many were involved in school plays such as the "Diary of Anne Frank."

While we were raising money, others were spending it before we made it. With the selection of the Ferguson Brothers as the band for the Prom, we looked forward to spring and the anticipated event.

Now, we were fully ready to devote all attention on the Prom. With the help of dedicated Juniors, the gym was transformed into a "Love Boat," and when Saturday night finally arrived, we gave ourselves a pat on the back. The evening was a fitting end to our junior year.

On class day, some of our classmates received many awards. Even though we all did not receive recognition, we all felt honored as we marched out of the auditorium as new SENIORS!

The Class of 1980 greeted their senior year with elation and enthusiasm plus a little nostalgia. We started the year not really believing we were actually seniors. Our class was led by President Carl Ellis, Vice-President Larry Davis, Secretary Riva Dean, Treasurer Renee Hall, Historian Kim Ranson, and Sergeants-at-arm Charles Wajciechowski and Leonard Wingfield. We were determined to make our last year at Varina, the best of them all. Being the first "class" to graduate from Varina "High School," we felt very special. Right from the start, Carl Ellis initiated the idea of a senior lounge. This effort alone signified a productive year. We decided to increase our treasury by selling candy and T-shirts with all of our senior names on each of them. Class dues helped greatly to increase the amount needed to pay for graduation ceremonies.

Our first class effort proved to be the Homecoming event. We decided upon a float, and all of us worked deligently to make it the very best float we ever tackled. We also elected the homecoming court. That night Todd Buheller was named Queen.

our float won third place, and the football team won!

As we ordered our announcements, caps and gowns, we became fully aware that we were completing our last year of high school. Man of us began thinking about what we were going to do after the year was finished. Many filled out college applications and took S.A.T.'s again.

We represented Varina in all aspects, from sports to plays to band to DECA to FBLA to VICA to cheerleading to flagtwirling or whatever. Each person had his own talents to contribute to what Varina is today. Next year will experience a gap that we once filled.

With spring came the onset of "Senioritis", a disease characterized by some laziness and anxiety. As the routine went on, one longstand tradition was upheld in style by the class of 1980 — "Senior Skip Day." The plans were kept very discreet until the eightieth day of 1980. All have memories of the park.

As we received our announcements and caps and gowns, we realized that the end was near. Many seniors could be seen busily writing in Memory Books and autographing "calling cards." In the midst of it all, we received our Prom invitations from the Junior class. As the big event of the evening arrived, we enjoyed the "Midnight Fantasy." The juniors gave us a terrific evening for us to look back upon long after graduation!

Those Senior exams were next on the agenda, and we struggled remembering that these would probably be the last exams we would ever take. As Class Day arrived and we donned our caps and gowns for the first time, we realized that our time at Varina was all too quickly coming to an end. Nostalgia did not dampen our spirits, though, as we proudly marched into the auditorium to be recognized and honored. We received every award, from the highest grade average to dramatics and music, to sports and leadership.

Our last days at Varina were filled with beach plans and Kings Dominion for Senior Night. As we managed to crawl out of bed for Graduation practices and Baccalaureate, we all waited for the "Big Day!!"

As we walked to graduate and receive our diplomas, many mixed emotions were felt. Our memories are all golden ones. We will treasure the good as well as the bad times. Varina will never be the same without us, and we will never be the same without Varina. So, as we throw our diplomas up in the air on June 5th, we are ending a part of our lives, and yet beginning a whole new life that is full of challenge and promises. Let us not forget each other.

MEMORIES

With the end of every season comes a new beginning - - so it is with school. Many look forward to summer days and the thoughts of future plans these lazy days cause, whether it be returning to VHS, moving on to a higher estahlishment of learning, or starting into the world of work. The memories of Varina will remain with us always through our lifetime.

Who could forget all the complaints about lunches, the cheers over the lunch menus and the addition of the salad bar? Or the long-awaited and sensible transfer of the English department closer to the library? Probably the most memorable feeling for every student was the togetherness found through participation in clubs, activities, sports, and the thrill of competition. Every one will miss the football games where Varina won because of being "psyched up" by Woody Sanderford's pep rallies and spirit battle cries! There will always be the memory of cheerleaders, majorettes, band, and flagtwirlers all longing and striving for an enthusiastic crowd. Who can forget the editorials in the newspaper and the new realistic form the newspaper took? For the first time, there was complete coverage of events and people throughout the campus. Mostly, who could forget the calmness that would engulf the school two minutes before the bell rang which was to be closely followed by footsteps and shouts to friends as . . .

Debbie, (BECKY)

Hey girl! (what he look like!) Trip! We have had some really wild & crazy times together (run around the well & back)! I could go on forever naming all of the crazy things we've done. Some of them I'd better not mention. No, I'm just kidding, we're perfect little angels, right?!

Debbie, you're a really good, no great friend, and I don't know what I'd do if I didn't have you as my friend. You cheer me up quicker than anybody I know. Stay just as sweet, pretty, and crazy as you are and you'll go far! Good Luck in all you do!

Don't forget Lizanne, cause she'll never forget you!

Love ya like a sis,

Friends Forever,

Beth

To a very cute girl who I've known for a long time and have come to like very much. remember All the crazy things we've done to gether and try not to laugh be good or good at it. good luck with your new "Jiggalo"

Debbie,
Even though we haven't known each for a long time, we have spent a few crazy times together, just recently. I sure hope you find a cure to "emergency break fever," HA! I will never forget those cute notes that somehow end up on my car. Good luck with everything in the future.

Love always,
Rusty Hobson

Debbie,
Sure Will miss you. you have been such a good friend even though I just meet you last year. Remember the cold time we had when we went to M.K. apartment.

Love always
Junie Tiller

To a really nice girl who was always laughing. I will always remember you and the day playing pool with Marie. Wayne Winston '81

Debbie,
to a real wacko!!! girl.
Can you believe its your last year!!! I'll never forget the fun times we've had: when you and Beth came over for a P.J. party and we threw clay, beans, Beth's crazy dreams, and putting on make up on the bus. ay sweet try to ol your- ☺ ends ays, Wade all, ☺.

Debbie
We been knowing each other since 1970 but we new made and effort to be friends til this year and again it is a little to late but anyway we will enjoy our friendship this year. Keep in touch the number is 2269377
